Baker High School

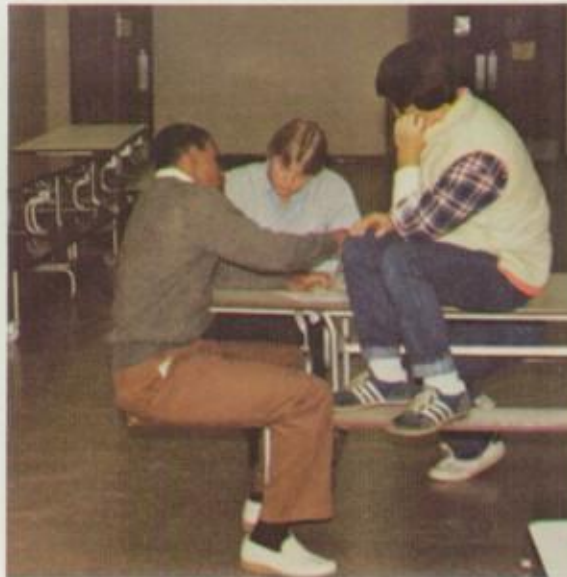

Mobile, Alabama

OUR SCHOOL:

Students in the Community

We the students make up our school. As Baker students, we involve our school in the community each day from National Honor Society to Junior Miss to F.B.L.A. This kind of pride in our school being demonstrated in the community makes our school great.

Baker High School is developing Mobile's western area daily. At one time, this area was considered the end of the line in Mobile, but with the development of Baker's new school, we have made a new starting point.

Baker students enthusiastically ties in the school support extra as well as in the curricular activi- community.

OUR SCHOOL:

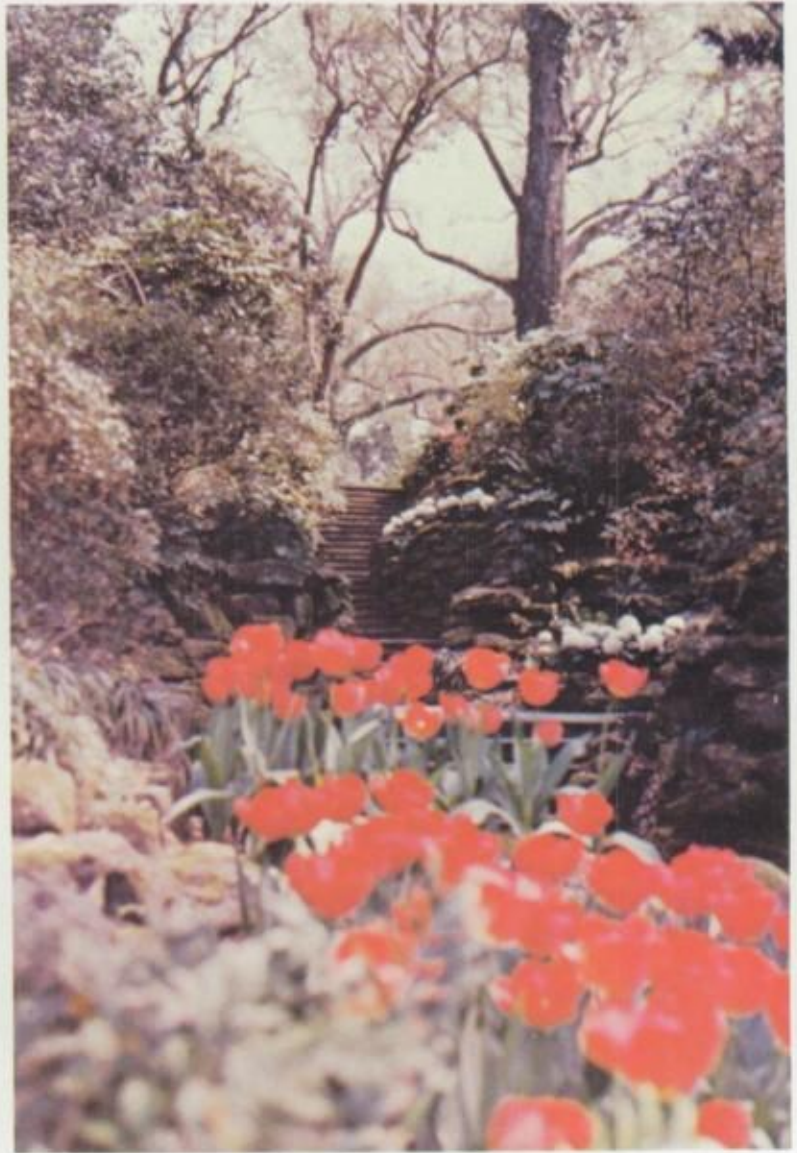

Students in Life

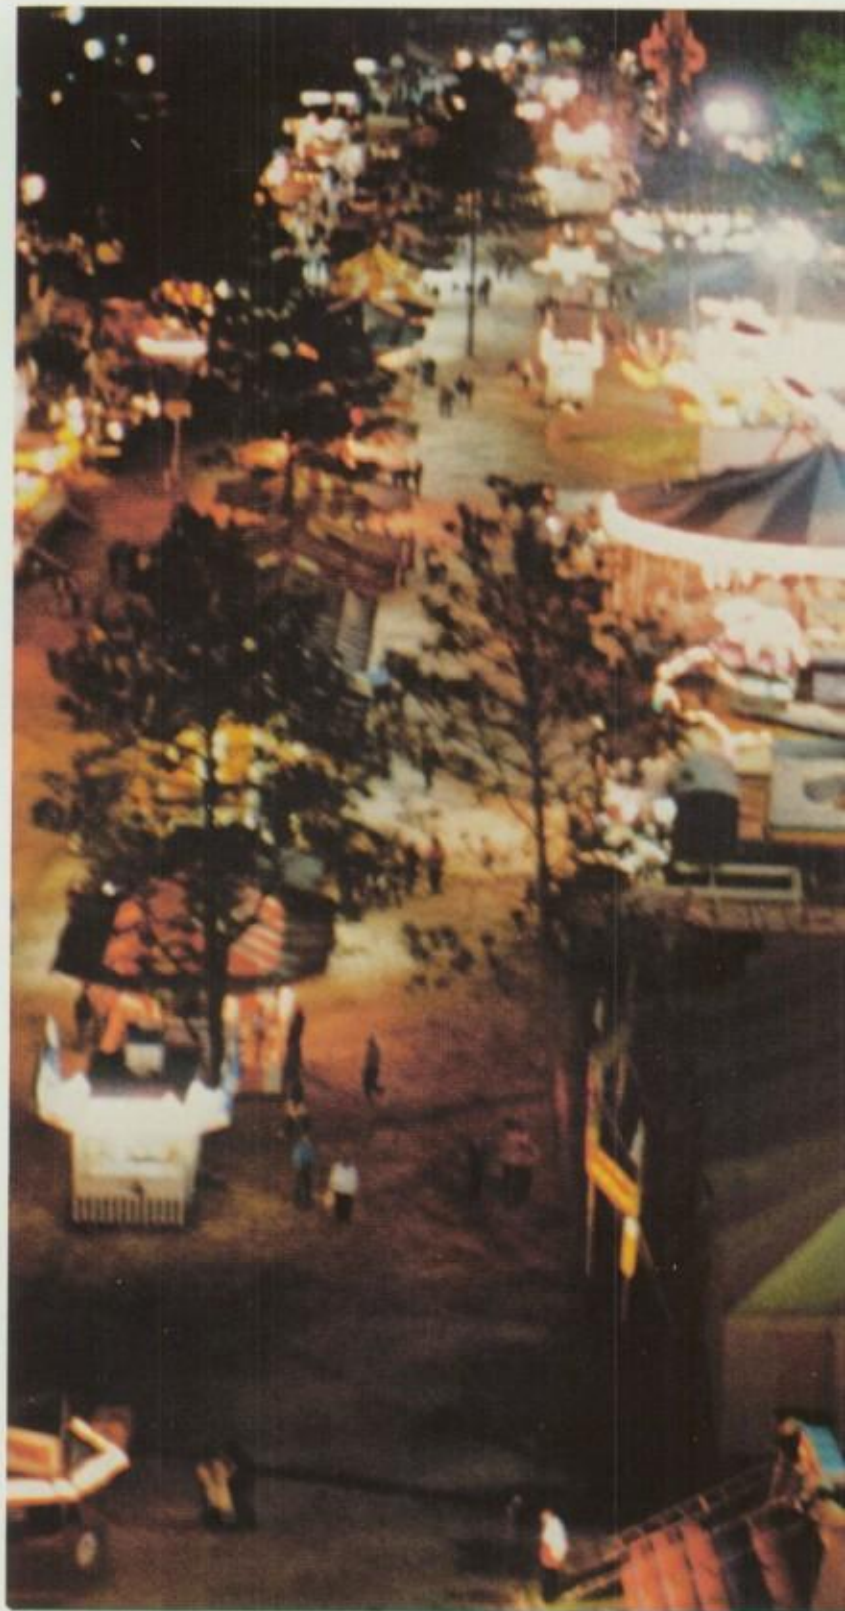

Students starting out at Baker in the seventh grade, also begin to broaden their horizons as new doors open for them. One can involve himself in clubs, sports, and student government, which in turn can help him to grow as a person. After graduation, Baker alumni will begin again, whether it be in college, in marriage and family life, or in a new job.

But Baker High School is the first new beginning.

Homecoming with Elegance—

Homecoming for 1982 was a very elegant affair. The court along with the cheerleaders, SCA officers, band, ROTC and Azalea Trail maids kept the audience enticed during halftime.

Even with the defeat by McGill, the Baker students were faithful to their Hornets.

After a full week of spirit boosting and extra activities, the big event finally began.

The senior class chose their queen as Teena Scott, with maids, CeCe Bailey, Leah Bright, Nunci Pond, Lelani Harris, and Brigette Wingfield.

Junior maid of honor, Jenny Wright, and maids, Anita Anderson, Charlyn Kowalski, Nam Richards and Michelle Robinson.

Sophomore maid of honor, Marsha Pierce, along with maids, Sandy Daw and Portia Harris.

Freshman maid of honor Monica Smith and maids, Angie Mallory and Secreta Lawson.

Azalea Trail maids, Lisa LaFe and Shari Urbanski add elegance to an evening of Homecoming activities.

Student Council officers, Lisa Patterson, Rey Toole, Carol Ann Gibbs and Suzanne Simmons stand and await call-outs with ring bearer, Jimmy Cook; and flower girl, Ashley Hayes.

Teena Scott, is crowned 1983 Homecoming Queen as her escort, Ron Allred looks on.

Balloons fly with the conclusion of Homecoming 1983.

Homecoming Dance—Huge Success

Queen Teena Scott and her court reigned over the Homecoming dance Saturday night, October 16, in the Baker cafeteria. The dance, sponsored by the S.C.A., was a huge success as it always has been. Even though Baker lost to McGill, Baker students had a lot of spirit and pride left over to make the dance a terrific experience for everyone that was in attendance.

Stan Clarke was the D.J. who played an excellent selection of music that kept the fast dancing good and the slow dancing better. He also played the Homecoming dance theme, "What's Forever For?" by Micheal Murphy. This song was used during a special dance reserved for the Homecoming Queen and her court.

Senior maids and escorts: John Lofton and Brigitte Wingfield, Frank Browning and Leah Bright, Ron Allred, and Teena Scott, Forrest Thompson and Nunci Pond, Billy Shields and CeCe Bailey.

Sophomore maids and escorts: Vincent Green and Portia Harris, Roby Blich and Sandy Daw, David Brunson and Marsha Pierce.

Amy Mallory and Shea Gollotte show everyone how to dance.

Homecoming just isn't Homecoming without pictures.

Seeking refuge in the hall are Mr. Dunaway, Mrs. Simmons, Suzanne Simmons and Rey Toole.

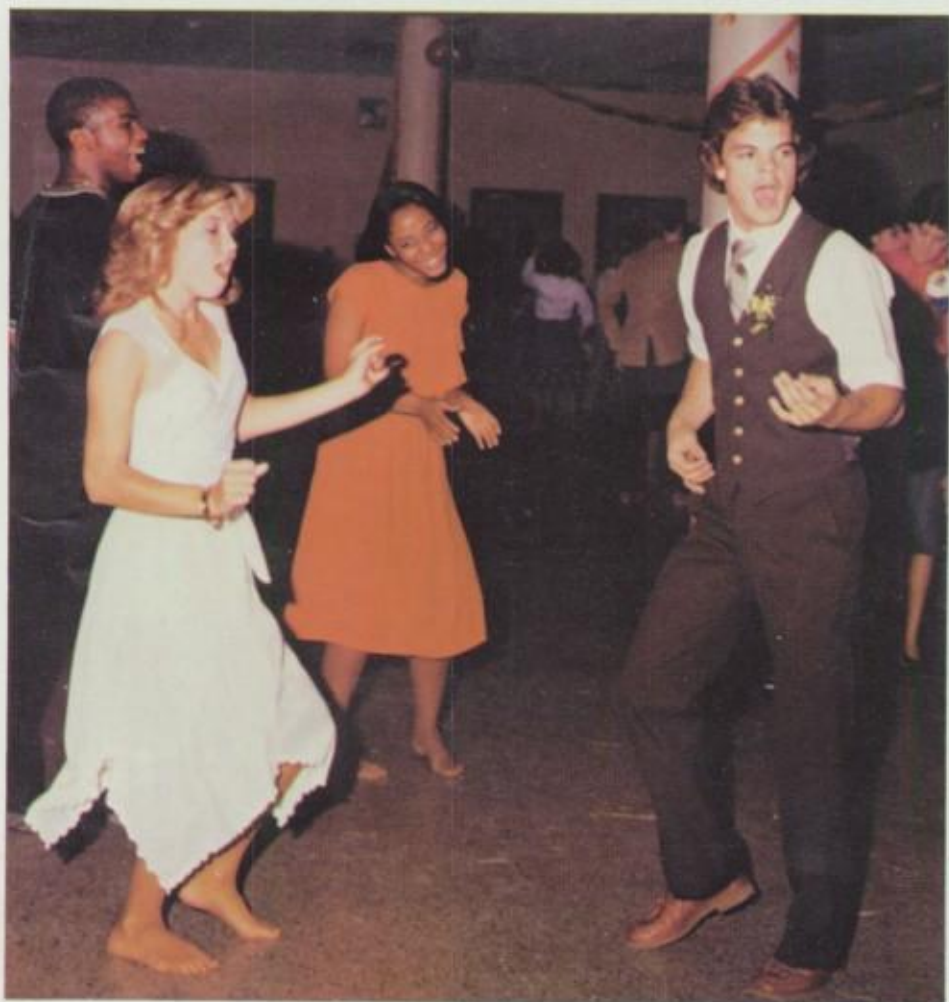

Junior maids and escorts: Victor McCants and Anita Anderson, Jim Tadlock, and Charlyn Kowalski, Glenn Willis and Nam Richards.

Freshmen maids and escorts: Brian Welton and Monica Smith, Kenneth Lawson and Serita Lawson, Mark Brooks and Angie Mallory.

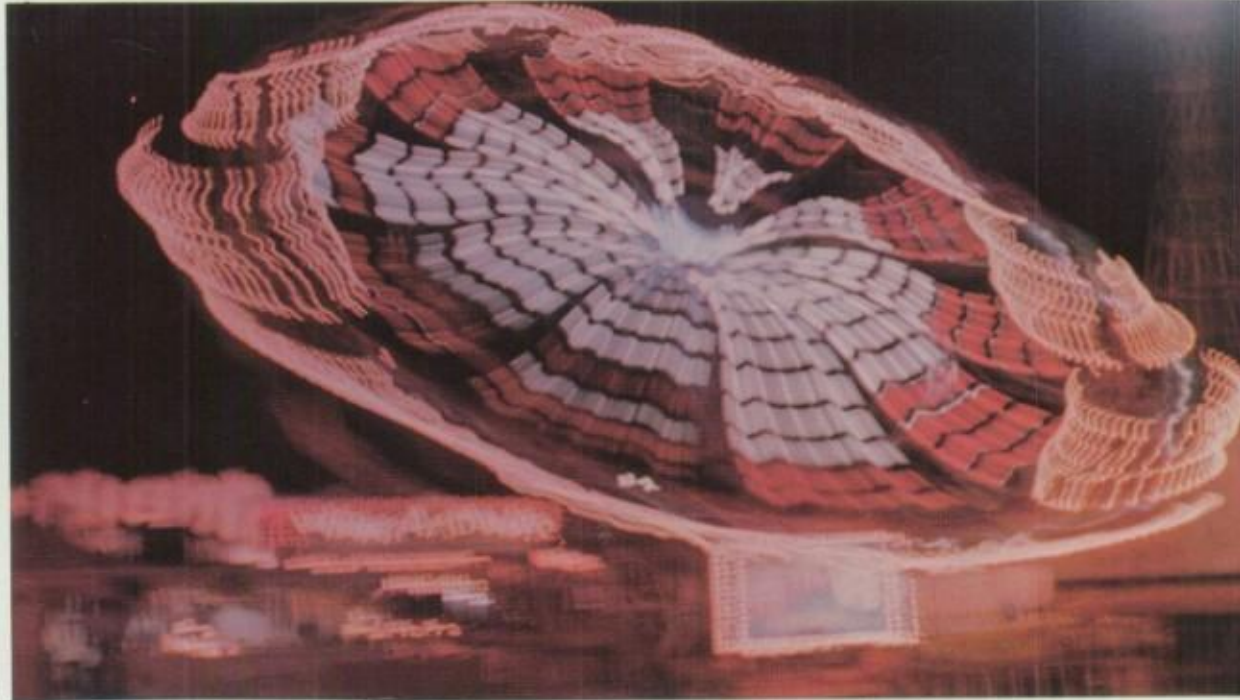

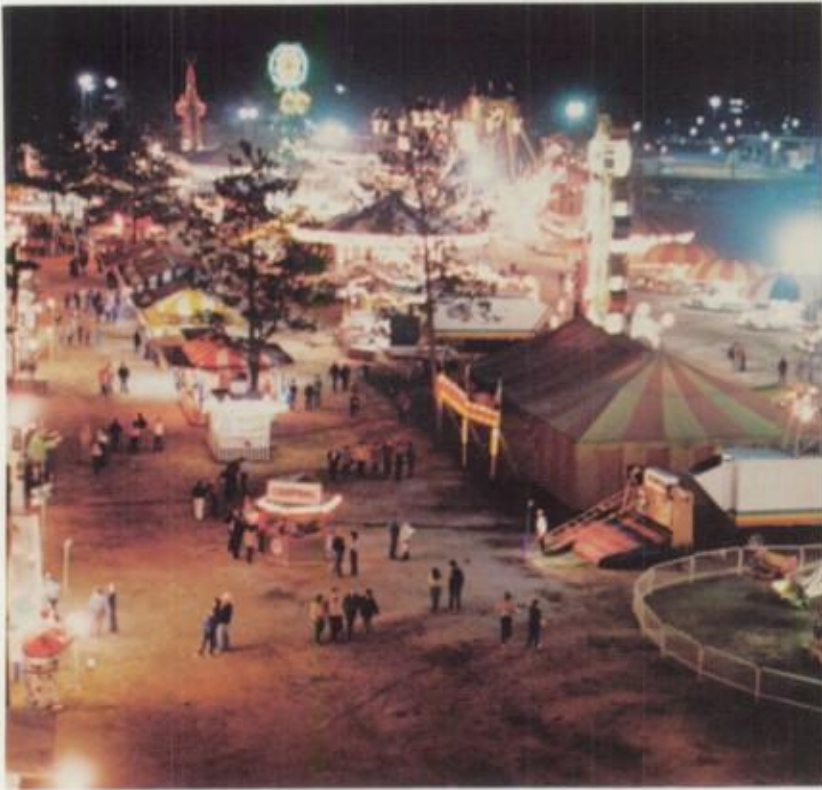

Mark Broadus and Lelani Harris Excitedly await their turn.

Everybody now—Dance and Sing!

The Greater Gulf State Fair

With the coming of Fall there are two events which reach Baker's students. One is Homecoming and the second is the Greater Gulf State Fair.

Mobile's Fair is the Event of the Season, not only for Baker students but other Mobilians of all ages.

The lights, sounds and sights make the atmosphere one enjoyed by all.

Students look forward to the relaxation and excitement of a cool night at the fair. The fair is a great chance for students to get away and be with their friends.

From the top of the Giant Wheel, people look like ants.

The Tidal Wave was a new stomach turning attraction.

We Know How To Show Our Spirit

Baker Students know how to show their spirit. With everything from cowboy hats to poodle-skirts, Spirit Week was a memorable part of Homecoming.

Monday, Baker Day, students proudly displayed Bakers' colorful ribbons and pins. Many students were "double trouble" and "twice as nice," on Tuesday's Twin Day. Wednesday was M.A.S.H. Day and the halls were overrun with "Hotlips Houlihans" and "Klingers." Thursday, Cowboy and Indians Day, many folks were dressed as if they were coming from a day on the range. Friday was considered a well known tradition to students; it was 50's Day. Everyone went back to the time of the Beatles, Happy Days, and Elvis. This Spirit Week helped to lead up to a well played Homecoming game and a good turnout for the Homecoming Dance.

The winners of the Mr. and Mrs. Spirit Contest were announced during the Baker-McGill Homecoming pep-rally, Friday. Arnold Tillman and Bruce Sledge tied for Mr. Spirit. Barry Bryant was the runner-up. The Miss Spirit award was given to Lisa Patterson. The runners-up were Mary Jane Rice, Sandy Lawson, Vonceile Carter, Kathleen McCune, and Trisha Sisson.

The Most Spirited Teacher award was given to Mrs. Crawford. She commented, "This has been the best Spirit Week ever!"

Fifties Day, a Baker tradition, is enjoyed by students.

Dances: A Chance to Get Together

A favorite extra-curricular activity is the dances which follow the many Baker football and basketball games. A good idea for having dances is not only having a great time, but also to raise money for clubs and organizations.

Our most traditional dance is the Back To School Dance, sponsored by the Journalism staff, with W.B.L.X. There was a great turnout which helped new and old friends get together.

A new experience was the TOGA DANCE. "TOGA" was heard throughout the cafeteria. Students were decked out in sheets in the toga spirit.

School dances used to be a thing of the past, but Baker students see them as a good time.

Seniors, Suzanne Simmons, Trisha Lumpkin, Lisa LaFe, and Sandy Lawson, discuss their new schedule at the Back To School Dance.

Juniors, Arnold Tillman, Glenn Willis, and Jim Tadlock praise us with singing, "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean."

Togetherness and having lots of fun are necessities of Baker's dances.

Spirit Shown Through Pep!

Pep Rallies! Everybody loves pep rallies. It is a great way for fans and players to get psyched up for a game. Whether it is football, basketball, or baseball, everyone shows spirit and unity in the school. Each pep rally demonstrates true school pride among all the student body, Administration, faculty, and students.

All the fans show their school spirit as well as pride by jumping and shouting and rooting for their team. The cheerleaders demonstrate their pride and spirit by leading cheers and always being there to encourage the players as well as yelling for them. Not only is Baker proud of their teams but the cheerleaders themselves. Baker cheerleaders have always been known for their extreme athletic ability as demonstrated at every pep rally.

Baker's dance team is also another organization well thought of by everyone. When the dance team makes their appearance at a pep rally, one is always in for a real treat. We are especially lucky since Baker is one of the few schools that have a dance team. Always by their side, the Baker band really gets the crowd going at every pep rally, and what a better way to start off a pep rally than with the "Pride of Baker."

Football Fans

"Going to the game tonight?" is a question heard all over the halls of Baker during football season. Whether you have a date or you're just going with a bunch of friends, it is always the highlight of everyone's weekend.

Excitement is in the fall air when all the Hornet fans fill up the Baker stadium. Faithful Hornet fans are always there to support their team.

What A Mess!

The Senior Mess Pageant, sponsored by the Senior Class, was considered a huge success in the eyes of the student body.

The pageant, which was held October 29, was composed of fifteen contestants. The contestants were judged on their choice of outfit, make-up, talent and answers to questions picked at random.

Arnold Tillman, Jim Tadlock, and Glen Willis had the audience rolling on the floor with their presentation of "Fire." Randy Matthews was a real knockout in his body shaping black leotard, doing a graceful roller skating routine.

The questioning session is what won it for Glenn Willis who was crowned Senior Mess.

When asked if Glen would consider becoming a nun, he thought for a brief moment and gave an emphatic "NO!" for his answer.

First runner up was Randy Matthews and second runner-up was Arnold Tillman.

1982 Talents In Bloom

Talents in Bloom, held during the month of December, was sponsored by the Junior Civitan. In Order to determine who would perform, Junior Civitan members voted for 13 performers out of the 21 who tried out.

Mrs. Barnes was in charge of picking the judges, and the Art Club decorated the gym for the talent show. Jake Brandenburg contributed the sound system and Fate Adams was in charge of the lighting.

The winners were: first, The Body Poppers, second, Lelani Harris, third, Keith Johnson and fourth, Barry Bryant. The Body Poppers included Henry Bradley, Cherokee Langford, James Paige, and Tony Conners. This group performed a new dance which they had to repeat because of the crowd's enthusiasm. Lelani Harris sang a religious song, "One Day at a Time." Keith Johnson played a song on the piano that he had composed and Barry Bryant sang "If I Could Read Your Mind."

Mrs. Perry was the sponsor of Talents in Bloom. This was her first year and she enjoyed working on the talent show with the help of the Junior Civitan members.

This year's Talents in Bloom had a very good turn out. It was said to be the best talent show at Baker.

Class Rings: A High School Tradition

Class rings are a tradition at all high schools. The rings for the class of 1984 were chosen in the month of November.

There were, as usual, many sizes and styles to choose from, ranging from the small dainty dinner rings to a larger, more masculine men's ring.

The Junior class, under the leadership of Michelle Robinson, ordered their rings with the utmost of care. A class ring holds all the memories of twelve years in school on one's finger.

Class unity in high school is depicted by the traditional class rings on the hands of the class members.

Lou Brock Visits Baker

Lou Brock, famous baseball player, visited Baker during November. The purpose of his visit was to give seniors a chance to compete for a scholarship.

During the first six weeks of this program seniors wrote on either "My Career Choice," or "Unemployment and Community Problems." Also each nominee had a five-minute interview which helped to decide who would qualify for the award. Guidance counselors and teachers were asked to recommend the students that applied for the award.

The judges at Group W. Cable selected the seniors according to their scholastic integrity, physical fitness, cultural awareness, and community service. The winner in each region wins a one thousand dollar scholarship.

Brock was an outfielder for the St. Louis Cardinals. He was a success in baseball, in the classroom, business office, and in the community. Because of his success, Teleprompter Training Institute named a scholastic award after him.

The Battle Of The Classes

Much excitement and enthusiasm was seen in the heartthrobbing high school "Challenge of the Classes."

It got off to a great start with the wheelbarrow relay. Participants divided into pairs and formed wheelbarrows, as they whirled to the middle of the floor, switched positions, and returned to the start.

The next event required players to go to the middle of the floor, squat to their knees, and try to roll a ball into a small paper cup taped to the floor. After doing this, they ran back to tap the next teammate.

Most everyone was familiar with the next event, the balloon race. Contestants accelerated to the center, while blowing up balloons, and sat on them until they popped.

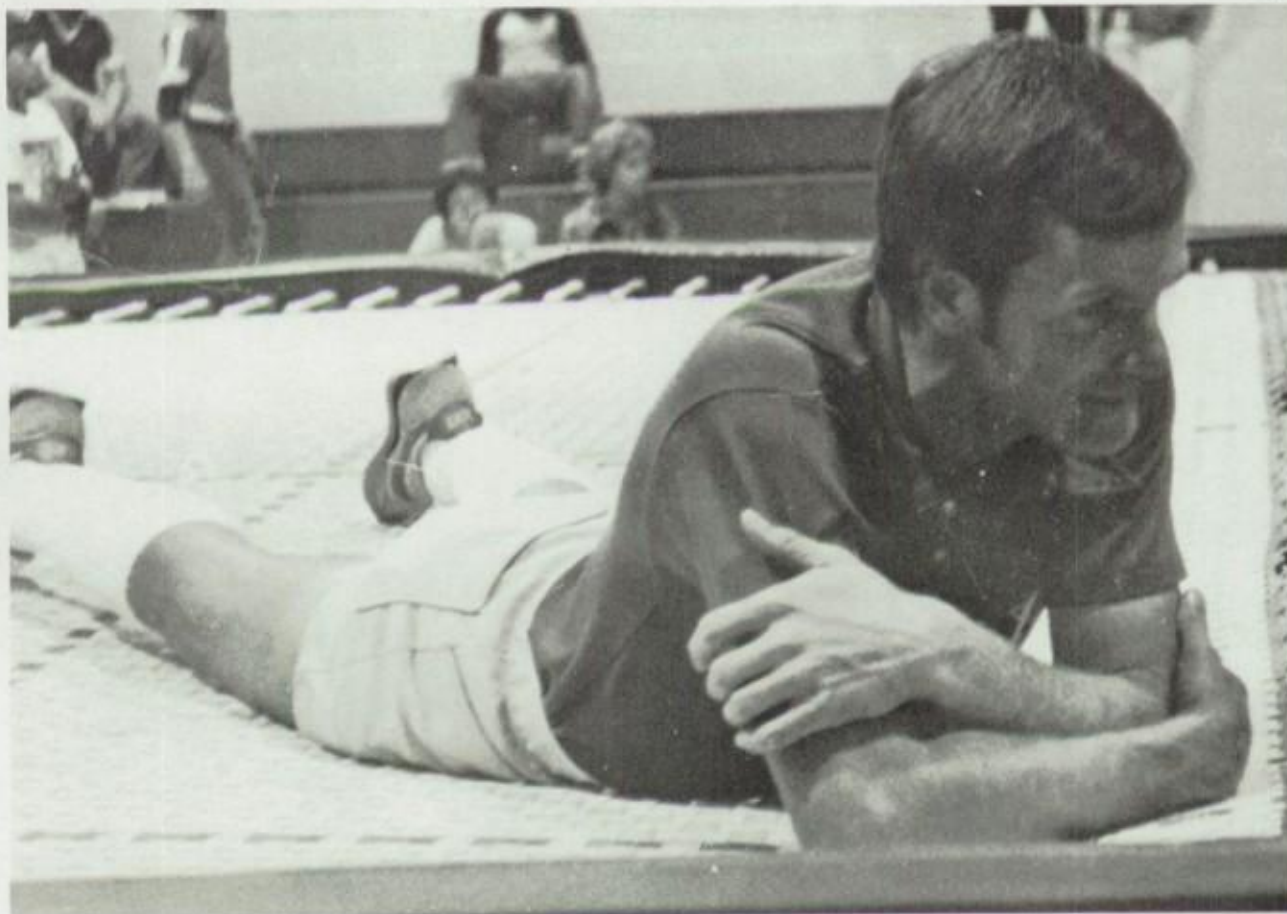

Next, players on each team lined up excitedly behind the free-throw line for a basketball relay, where contestants gave it their best shot.

One person from each team was chosen to participate in the next event. It was a hilarious sight as contestants stuffed their faces with as many bananas as possible, while jumping on a trampoline at the same time.

The final test was an exasperating one as players took part in a tug of war, pulling with all their might. The teachers were victorious at the end of the battle and the sophomores came in second. Both were left behind last year, and had stated that they would be back, doing just that.

The middle school assembly which included the seventh through ninth graders was held during fifth period in the gym and followed the same format as the high school.

The teachers again came in first and the seventh grade, second.

Down Home in Happyville

This year's senior class play, "Happyville," a western love story, was the play the seniors put on for the student body, teachers, and family of the seniors.

Finally, after days of hard work and deliberation for selecting the parts in the play, the cast was announced: Hawkeye Hannah, Lisa Patterson; Shootin Sam, Allen Caroll; Ellie May, Bonnie Cook; The Sheriff, Jerry McClearley; The Mayor, Robert Mosley; Jetee, Ryan Daughtery; Jethrine, CeCe Baily; Squaw, Karan Andrews; The Preacher, La Darrel Thomas and Hawkeye's parents, Beth Dix and Terry Livingston.

Other parts included performers from the Red Dog Saloon and the Happyville Dancers.

With the large cast many thought it would be difficult to prepare for this performance. But this opportunity gave a chance for the class of 83' to become closer and feel like one big family.

Shooting Sam, played by Allen Carrol, concentrates on his aim.

Mayor Harris, played by Robert Mosley, blushes with embarrassment over Ellie May.

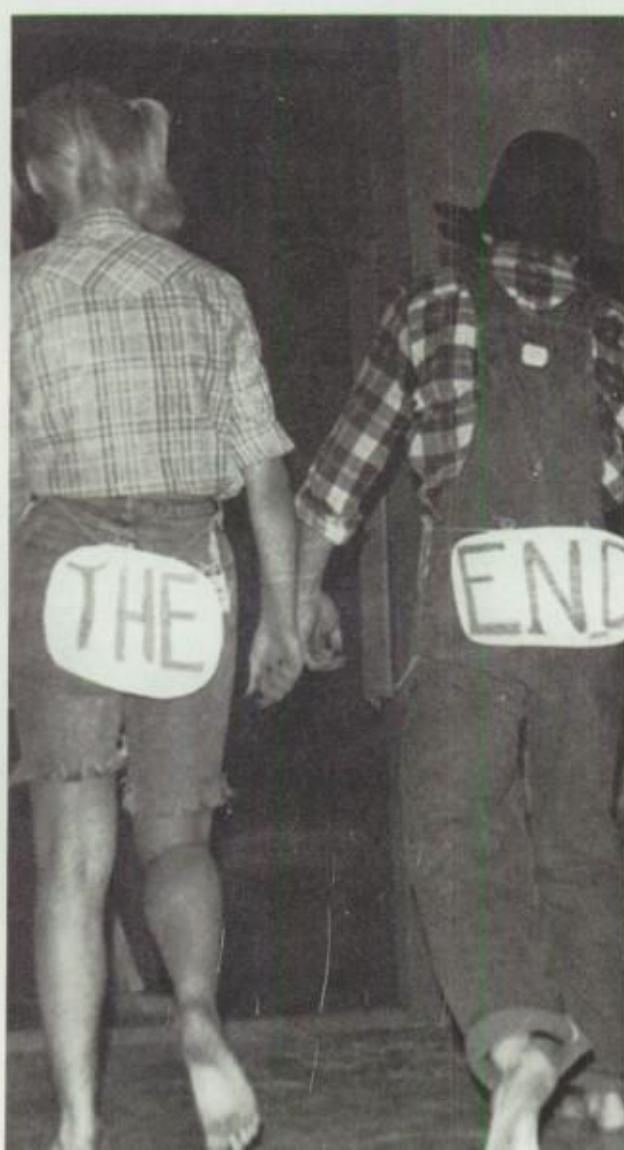

Cece Bailey is fascinated by the paper bird.

Ma, Beth Dix, and Pa, Terry Livingston, are discouraged about Hannah finding a feller.

Carol Ann Gibbs serenades The Sheriff, played by Jerry McCearley.

Townsfolk listen intently as the Mayor speaks.

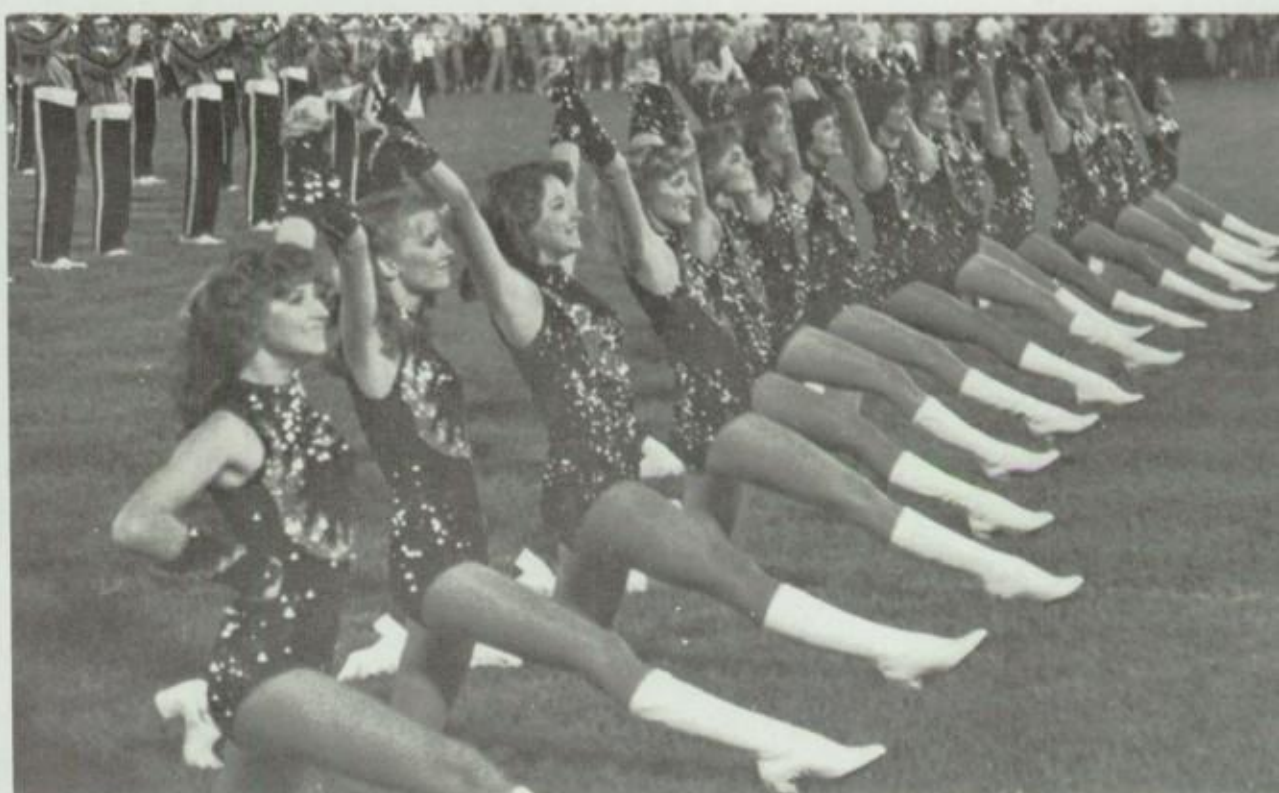

Happyville dancers have a hootin' and holler' time. Hawkeye Hannah, played by Lisa Patterson, looks at her honey, Shooting Sam.

Ellie Mae and Chief White Cloud are astonished by what the mayor has to say.

S.C.A. and Class Elections

You always know when it's time for class and Student Council elections.

Everywhere you look you are constantly reminded by the campaign posters in every stairway and hall. Campaign managers are busy passing out buttons and pins displaying a variety of ideas and campaign promises.

The candidates present their speeches at class assemblies the day before the voting takes place.

Baker is always proud of its class and Student Council officers. They've always showed they can accept responsibility and show their leadership.

Class spirit is prevalent in most campaign posters.

Scott Cooper is passing on a few hints that could steal the election.

Mrs. Deupree explains the duties and what she'll be expecting of the new Student Council officers next year.

Barbie Gibbs and the other S.C.A. officers plan the installation ceremony.

Paul and Paula's "At the Hop"

Could it be that teachers have talent? Well, on Thursday, March 10, it certainly showed through. This phenomenon event was sponsored by the B-Club.

The variety of entertainment was presented to both assemblies for high and middle school. This included the Solid Old Gold Dancers, Robert Taylor in "Splish Splash," Mrs. Wright and her group, The Supremes, Coach Wally, singing "Alley Opp," and Mrs. Flynn singing "Peggy Sue." The most exciting moment in the show was the Spotlight Dance that students and teachers participated in. Teachers relived their school spirit during the Chuck Barry song, "School Days." Mr. Dunaway's true character was brought out when students sang, "Miki, You're so Fine." Students were overwhelmed when coaches, John Aikens and Clem Richardson displayed their muscular talent, while Coach Jones, Coach Odom, and Coach Bumbers played toss with a beach ball.

The teachers showed great pride during this enjoyable event and they definitely let everyone see that teachers are people too!

"You're the one that I want!"
Dianna Ross and her group, The Supremes, sang
"Some Day We'll Be Together."
Splish, Splash, let's take a bath.

Designer Deleria

What will it be, Calvin Klein's, Plain-Pockets or Tough-skins?

If you are into the so-called, "Designer Scene, you would have most likely chosen the Calvin Klein's.

The designer craze is sweeping this nation by storm and some of it has even gone over seas. Some people will save all their hard-earned money just to buy a pair of Chic's, Gloria Vanderbilt, Sasson, Calvin Klein, and let us not forget, Jordache jeans.

Designers have gone to such tactics as using beautiful models that cause the "designer-dazed" to believe they will look like that if they wear those clothes. Such as Gloria Vanderbilt Black Jeans, "When a woman wears black, she expects something to happen." Other designers have used such lines as, "I'm Calvinized," (Calvin Klein), "A Tradition continued," (Levi's), "You've got the look!" (Jordache), "Oooh, La! La!" (Sasson) and "A size for every shape," (Chic).

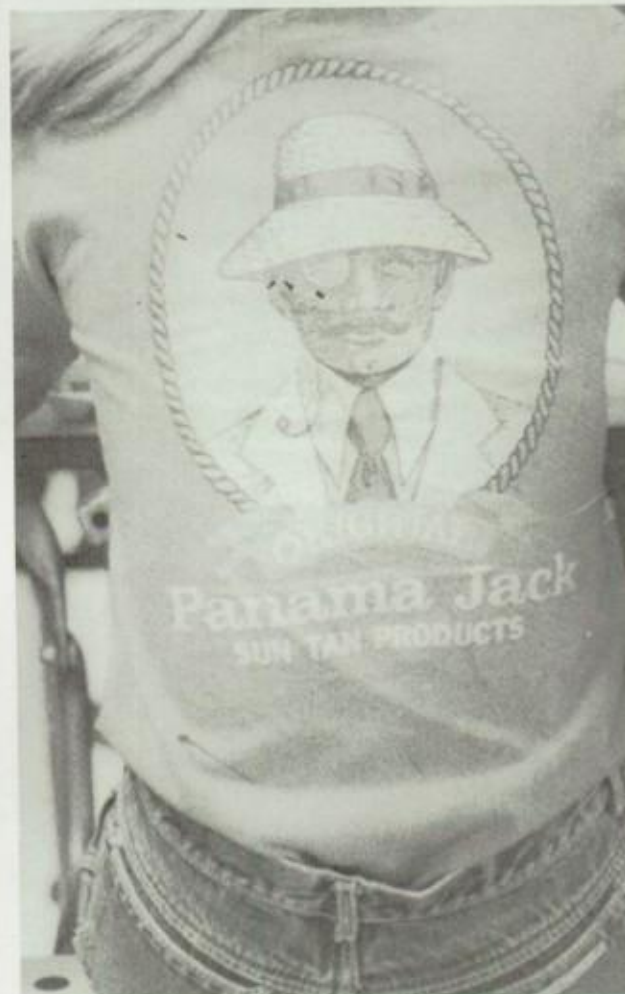

Jeans aren't the only items that are Designer-designated. There are also shirts, sweaters, skirts, and shoes. The main competition in this area is "Polo" and "Izod La Coste." In the beginning of the 80's, "Izod" was on top, but within the past year, "Polo" has become the new "King of the Hill." Ralph Lauren, (Polo) has also dabbled in perfumes and colognes. Izod La Coste, not to be outdone by Polo, has a new perfume out now, also. But they aren't the only ones, Gloria Vanderbilt, Oscar De La Renta, Calvin Klein and Yves St. Laurent have also expanded their careers into fragrances.

In the area of footwear, "Bass" is in the front with a big lead on everyone else, although "Agner" is not doing too bad. While "Bass" is just in footwear, "Agner" deals in footwear, along with sweaters, shirts, and leather items (purses, wallets, belts, etc.)

As you can see, in this "Designer-deleria" nation of ours it's more important to have a nice pair of Jordache jeans and a Polo sweater with Izod perfume than such insignificant details as paying your rent, getting gas for your car or having food to eat. I mean, really! Who needs a roof over their head when they have a Calvin Klein raincoat!

Being a Senior is always in fashion say Shari Urbanski, Renee Pajer, Connie Gilley, Carol Ann Gibbs, and Monica Self.

Tracey Utiss displays the new-wave earrings.

"Polo is in!" says Robert Taylor.

"Hi, Sailor!" Pat Sanders exclaims as she models another fashion, the nautical look.

T-Shirts are a fashion that never go out of style.

1983 Production of "1776"

"1776," the inspiring musical play brought to us by the Choral Department March 14 and 15 was truly a success.

The tedious task of piecing together such a production began when Mr. Doolittle conducted auditions to choose the very best cast ever.

Many intense hours, hard work, and patience went into the production for approximately six weeks. They also sacrificed many of their long-awaited-for Saturdays preparing themselves.

Recognition for sets and direction goes to Mr. Thom McClintock. Mrs. Sherri Mullin, Drama and Speech teacher, contributed much of her time and ideas in helping to make the play successful also.

"1776" was originally a New York production at the Music Theater and cost approximately $1400. to produce it. It ran for three years on Broadway, won both the coveted Tony Award and New York Drama Critics' Circle Award and "Best Musical" of the 1968-69 season.

"1776" was based on drafting the Declaration of Independence. It wrapped unforgettable moments of our history with unyielding spirit. Each cast member helped the audience to look back at our forefa-ther heroes as the real people they were.

When asked if Mr. Doolittle was pleased with the overall outcome, he answered "Yes" without hesitation. He was so pleased that he plans to perform at four or five other schools in Mobile County. In his final words, he commented, "There's a lot to be learned in doing a show like this."

Courrier, Lelani Harris sings "Mama Look Sharp" to the audience of 1776.

Class Holds Wedding

Family living, a class which explores the aspects of a marriage and family, held its annual mock wedding ceremonies on January 12 and 13. Randall Messer and Angela Wheeler were joined in wedlock.

Mark Ost and Trisha Sisson also pronounced their vows before friends.

Along with planning the actual ceremony, the second and third period classes, investigated the costs of a real wedding. Renting tuxes and dresses, buying a cake, researching other hidden costs of a wedding, helped the students find that marriage isn't all fun and games.

Their weddings took place in the media center, a reception followed in the home economics room for the family living classes.

Sweetheart Dance

"You and I" was the theme of the 1983 Sweetheart Dance. The dance was sponsored by the S.C.A. and was after the B.C. Rain basketball game.

Felecia Jernigan and Mark Broadus were crowned 1983 Sweetheart Queen and King. Leah Bright and Frank Browning came in second. There were four other couples, Scott Huggins and Michelle Jackson, Roby Blitch and Sandy Daw, Alan Carroll and Bonnie Cook, and Dwayne Hancock and Stephanie Smith.

Approximately $930.00 was raised by the six couples. Mark and Felecia raised approximately $303.00 while Leah and Frank raised around $296.00.

The dance was held on February 4 in the cafeteria and Stan Clark was the disc jockey.

N.H.S. Pins New Members

November 1982 new members of the National Honor Society were inducted and pinned. The pinning ceremony was a result of the tapping ceremony held at the end of the previous year. Each ceremony is conducted with each member lighting their candle from one large candle. The candle symbolizes the light of knowledge.

The National Honor Society is an organization of students who excel in academics as well as extra-curricular activities.

Each student to be qualified for the National Honor Society must have at least a 3.5 average. Each member is elected by their teachers.

The president of the 1982-83 National Honor Society was Wayne Ringelburg. Vice president, Carol Anne Gibbs and the secretary, Rey Toole. The sponsor was Mrs. Joanne Ely.

Azalea Trail Maids

The Azalea Trail Maids represent Mobile in many public functions each year. They are selected from each school in the county and then the finalists are selected along with the Azalea Trail Queen and her Court.

Baker's 1982-83 maids were Kandy

Blackburn, Sherri Elmore, Lisa LaFe, Shari Urbanski and Felicia Jernigan. They served throughout the year at many functions, such as the South Alabama Jaguars Basketball Games, the Azalea Trail Run, the Senior Bowl and the Junior Miss Pageant.

Felicia Jernigan is a BHS Varsity cheerleader as well as an Azalea Trail Maid.

Apart from representing Baker as an Azalea Trail Maid, Shari Urbanski also represents her Alma Mater as a member of the 1982-83 Dance Team.

Azalea Trail Maid, Sherri Elmore is a member of the BHS Student Council and Who's Who Among American High School Students.

Kandy Blackburn, Azalea Trail Maid, was awarded the third runner-up in the 1983 Hornet Night Beauty Pageant.

Azalea Trail Maid, Lisa La Fe, graduated eighth in grade point average rank in the Class of 1983.

Baker's Junior Miss Finalists

Many senior girls from each school tried out to compete in the 1982 Junior Miss America Pageant, and Baker was honored to have 5 finalists. They were: Lee Anne Cooke, Connie Gilley, Carol Anne Gibbs, Teena Scott and Rey Toole. They competed against other senior girls in talent presentation, physical fitness and personal interviews.

Carol Anne Gibbs was the first runner-up in the Mobile County Junior Miss America Pageant. She received a scholarship to Spring Hill College through Junior Miss.

Senior, Connie Gilley danced for her talent in the 1982 Junior Miss Pageant.

Carol Anne Gibbs accompanied herself on the piano while singing "Breaking Up Is Hard To Do" in the Junior Miss Pageant.

Valley Girl, Rey Toole, presented Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet" after the style of Moon Zappa's Valley Girl for her talent.

Mardi Gras: A Mobile Tradition

Mardi Gras 1983 was no different from any Mardi Gras in the past with revelry and celebration. But where did it all come from?

The LeMoyne Brothers, in 1702, brought their Latin celebration of Mardi Gras with them to the New World. The first recorded Mardi Gras celebration on the Gulf Coast was the Societe de la Saint Louis. Mobile's Mystic societies were begun during the 1830's. The Striper's Independent Society, organized in 1842, became the oldest of Mobile's Mystic Societies.

The Crescent City, New Orleans, got its carnival and Mardi Gras celebrations from Mobile. In the early 1850's, several Mobilians succeeded in taking the tradition along with them to New Orleans, which is now Mobile's only opposition in Mardi Gras proceedings.

After the Civil War, a man named Joe Cain received the Mardi Gras jubilee in Mobile. He has since been celebrated on Mardi Gras Sunday with the Joe Cain parade.

Since then, the joy and nonsense of Mardi Gras is anticipated by young and old alike, and when the season comes upon us each year, we can feel the excitement in the air!

Senior, Mary Jane Rice, was crowned queen of the Mystic Stripers in Mardi Gras 1983. Her father has been a member of the Mystic Stripers for more than a decade and he was Mary Jane's king. Mary Jane rode on the queen's float in the Stripers parade, and then reigned over the Striper's Ball.

An Old Tradition Updated

As usual, class awards were given to those students chosen by their peers. To get these awards, these people must be highly respected and well-liked by their fellow classmates. One of the most prestigious awards given at Baker is Mr. and Miss Baker High School and this year the recipients were Allen Carroll and Bonnie Cooke.

While the judges were making the final decisions, the audience was entertained by Carol Ann Gibbs with "You Are Always On My Mind." As time for the big moment drew near, all was quiet and there was electricity in air when the winners were announced. Senior, Kandy Blackburn was 3rd. runner-up, Freshman, Kelly Sheffield, was 2nd runner-up, and Senior Bonnie Cooke was crowned Most Beautiful of Baker High School for 1983.

An old tradition with new changes made Hornet Night very memorable this year. The pageant still had many lovely young ladies, but the number was just a little smaller. The format of the program was also changed with two new Masters of Ceremonies, Mr. John Butler and Mrs. Sherrie Mullin.

Another refreshing change was having all of the contestants give a quote that was special to them. This gave the judges a chance to hear the contestants' speaking voices and get an insight on their personalities.

The distinguished panel of judges were Dr. Janice Kennedy, Sam Baker, Melba Brown, Steve Panzram, Kathleen Hirsh, and Larry Bell.

Changes in the 1983 Hornet Night made this year's event much more enjoyable.

Senior Class beauties: Brigette Wingfield, Kandy Blackburn, Cassie Holladay, Bonnie Cook, CeCe Bailey, and Wanda Bedgood.

Junior Class beauties: San San Lockett, Jenny Wright, Charlyn Kowalski, Nam Richards, April McMichael, Kim Collins, and Allen Thompson.

Places People Go

After one of the many football games, dances and other various assemblies that are presented at Baker, just where do people go?

Godfathers has always been the main attraction for Baker students, along with McDonalds, Showbiz, and Burger King. Other Baker hangouts are Springdale and Bel Air Mall where students usually catch a movie or just walk around and have fun.

As far as the 7th and 8th grade goes, you can usually find them at Sunshine Skating Rink on Friday and Saturday nights with a large group of friends.

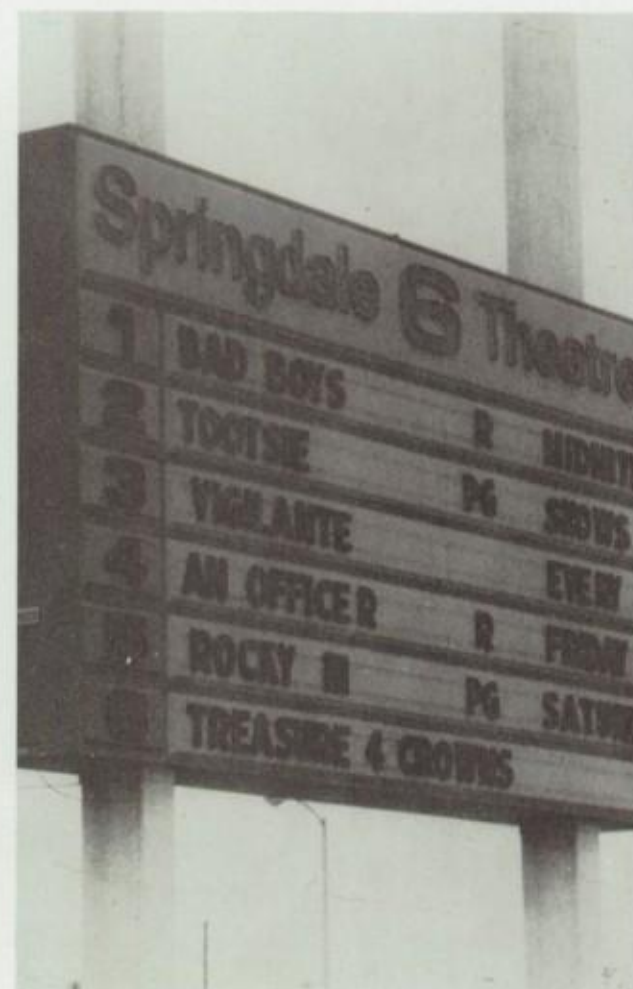

It doesn't matter where we are or what the occasion is, Baker students definitely know how to have fun and have a good time!

Many of Baker's hangouts are Putt-Putt, Sunshine, Bel Air Mall, Mr. Gattis pizza, Godfathers, movie theaters, Burger King, McDonalds, and also Showbiz. You can usually find them here on Friday or Saturday nights.

Baker students sometimes seem to be camera shy but the truth is they love to have their picture taken. Oh, I know they cover their faces, run and hide, but they usually get their picture taken anyway. Most of the time they argue about the matter and still end up making some silly pose for the camera. Whenever there's a camera in sight, a clown will appear and everyone around will be captured on film smiling or laughing.

Picture after picture, flash after flash, Baker students always seem to be happy. On guard and even off guard they're still smiling.

Indeed, Baker is a very happy school, and the students are definitely not camera shy. They smile at anything and everything. So if you're a Baker student and a photographer comes up to you, don't be shy, smile for the camera.

Rivers Lodds and Allen Thompson make the 1983 Junior/Senior Prom a memory.

Prom servers, Lee Wilson and Alan Meier dance together in their tuxes with the added touch of sunglasses.

Scott Barnhill and Stacey Bueche are caught having a good time at the prom.

Who would have guessed they could dance?

1983 Junior/Senior Prom

Prom time is always an exciting and fun event for juniors and seniors. This year's prom was certainly no exception.

Expo Hall set the stage on April 8th for the excellent music of Damascus with "Truly" as the theme song for the enchanting '83 prom. A magnificent evening was spent dining, dancing, and having pictures made.

All were clad in their rented tux and carefully chosen gowns.

Callouts for the junior and senior class officers went smoothly, followed by the crowning of prom queen.

Brigitte Wingfield was awarded 3rd runner-up for the Prom Queen, and Ce Ce Bailey was 2nd runner-up. Bonnie Cook and Leah Bright tied for first runner-up, and Teena Scott, who was also the 1982-83 Homecoming Queen, was crowned the 1983 Prom Queen.

After the solo dance for officers and Prom Queen, students and teachers danced the night away.

Everything is so much more enjoyable when you are with friends.

Damascus did a fine job playing a variety of songs for the 1983 Jr./Sr. Prom.

Even the teachers dressed up and had a great time at Prom.

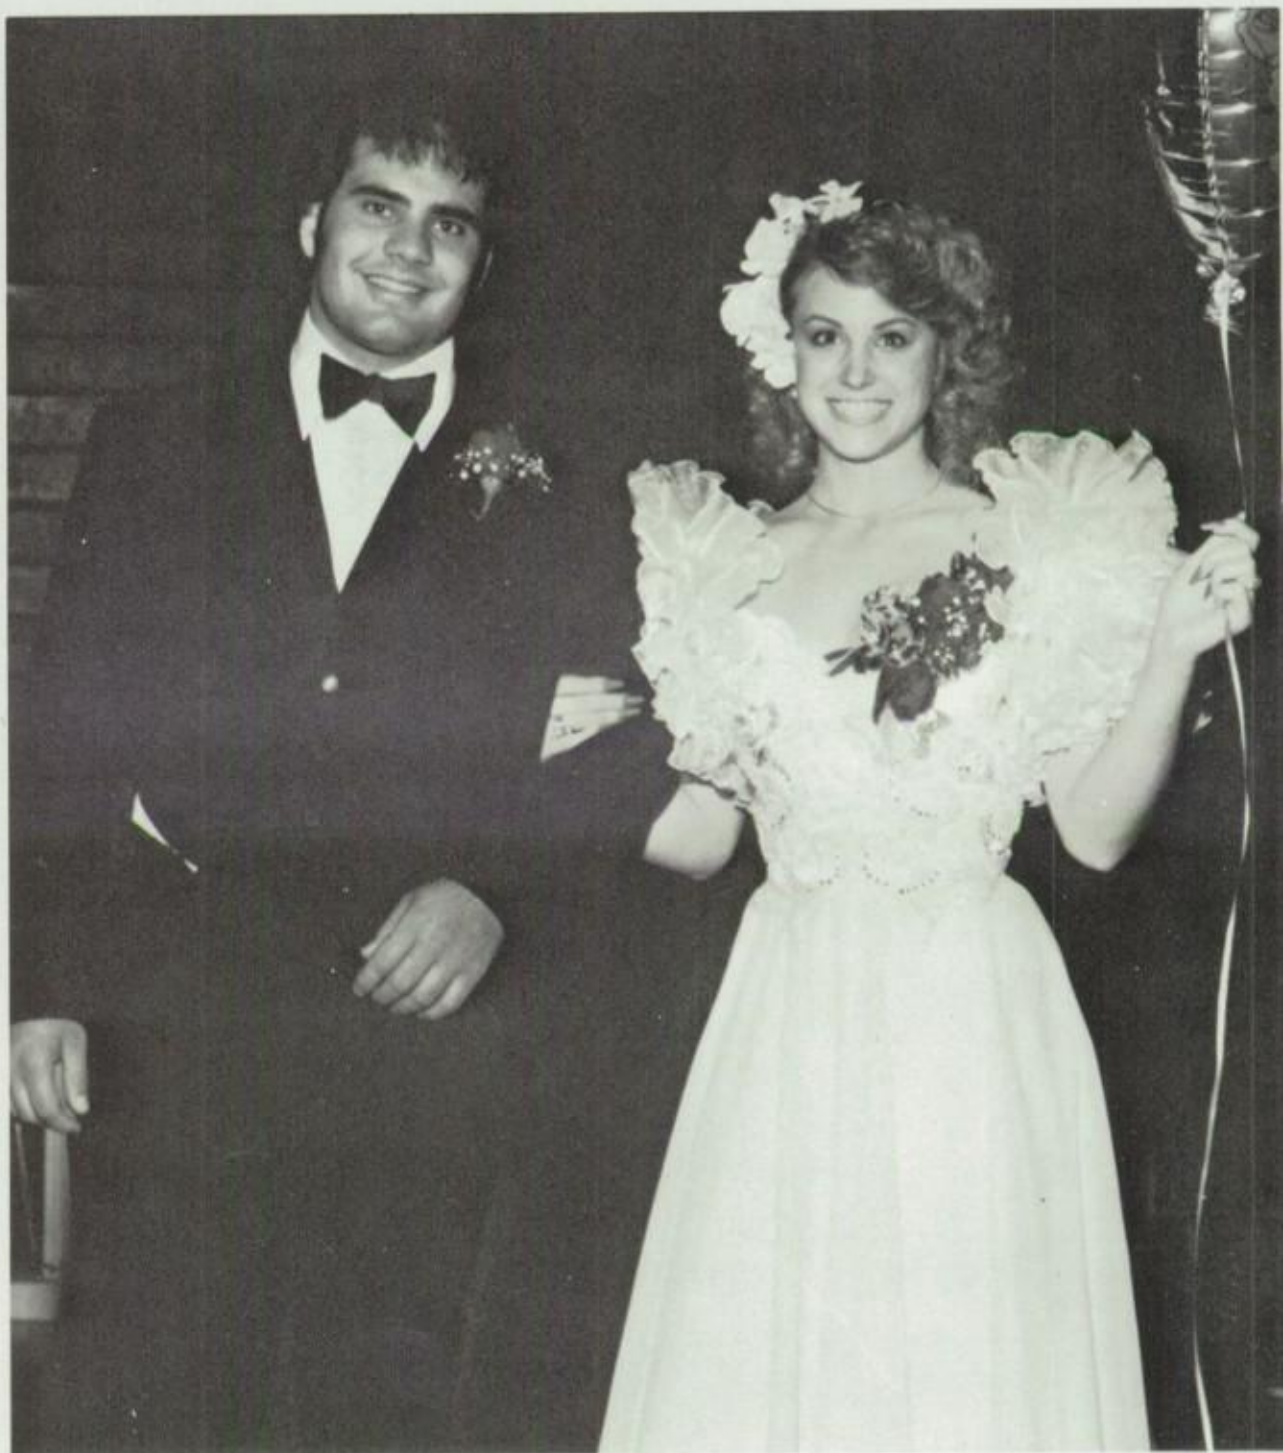

Cece Bailey is awarded her balloon as second runner-up to Prom Queen.

Prom servers, Sandy Daw, Stephanie Clark, Brook Barackman and Karen Hoskins are "Truly" hard at work.

Brigitte Wingfield jovially accepts her balloon while being honored as 3rd runner-up to Prom Queen.

Mr. and Miss Baker High School, Allen Carroll and Bonnie Cooke smile proudly after Bonnie was honored as 1st runner-up to Prom Queen.

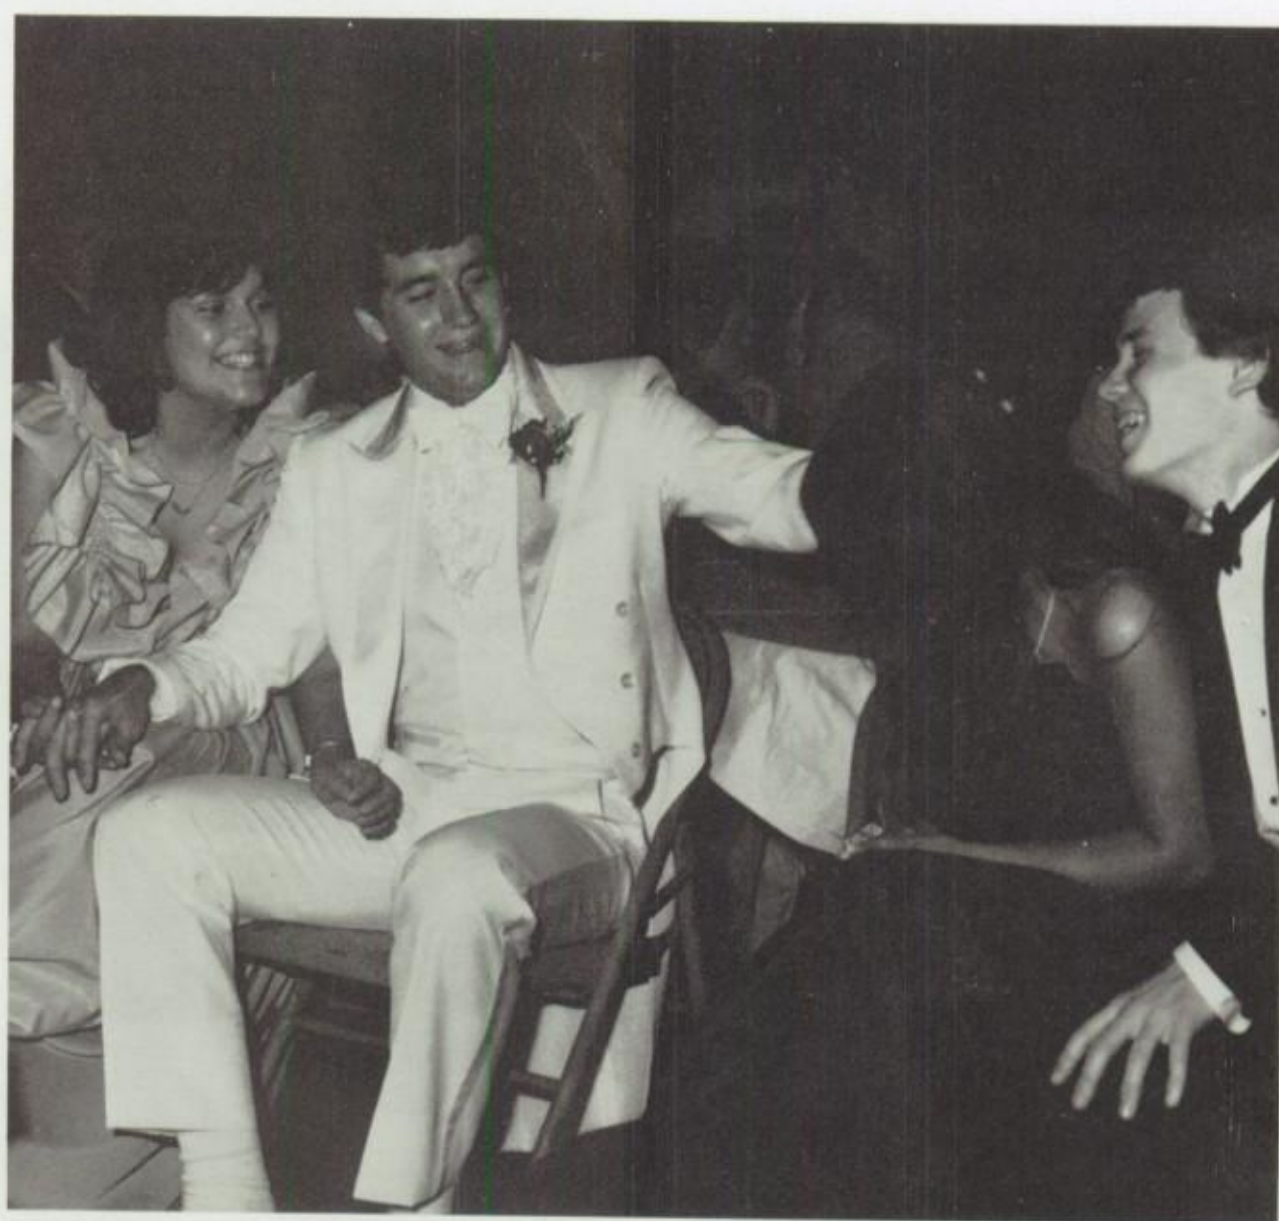

Ginger Lowell and Kenneth Johnson have the opportunity to show off together at the 1983 Junior/Senior Prom.

The gym was filled with laughter and applause during the presentation of "On Broadway," presented by Mrs. Mullin's drama classes.

There was a variety of attractions with everything from Mr. Daughtery and his ventriloquist act to the talented dancers that were involved in Mrs. Mullin's speech and drama classes. The audience also showed a great response to the "Elevator Scene," starring Jim Porter. In another act, Kendall Barackman cries for a real man to Scott Barnhill. Another astonishing treat that thrilled the audience was Lloyd Heard's puzzling Magic Show. One that was enjoyed by all was "Air Guitar" by Wade Whitney and his band "Alabama."

Terry Bowen was the M.C. during the "Freak Show" where the audience roared with laughter. The "Fame Dance" was an enjoyable event for everyone too.

All in all, the "On Broadway" production was an enjoyable treat where the audience was very respondent with laughter and excitement and applause.

Senior Week . . . The End is Near

For this very close senior class, the last of the senior week was seven days of excitement, fun, maybe a little scared facing the real world, but most of all, preparing for graduation.

Many events were included during this week, such as Honors Day, the Baccalaureate Breakfast, receiving caps and gowns, and then what everyone had been waiting for . . . GRADUATION.

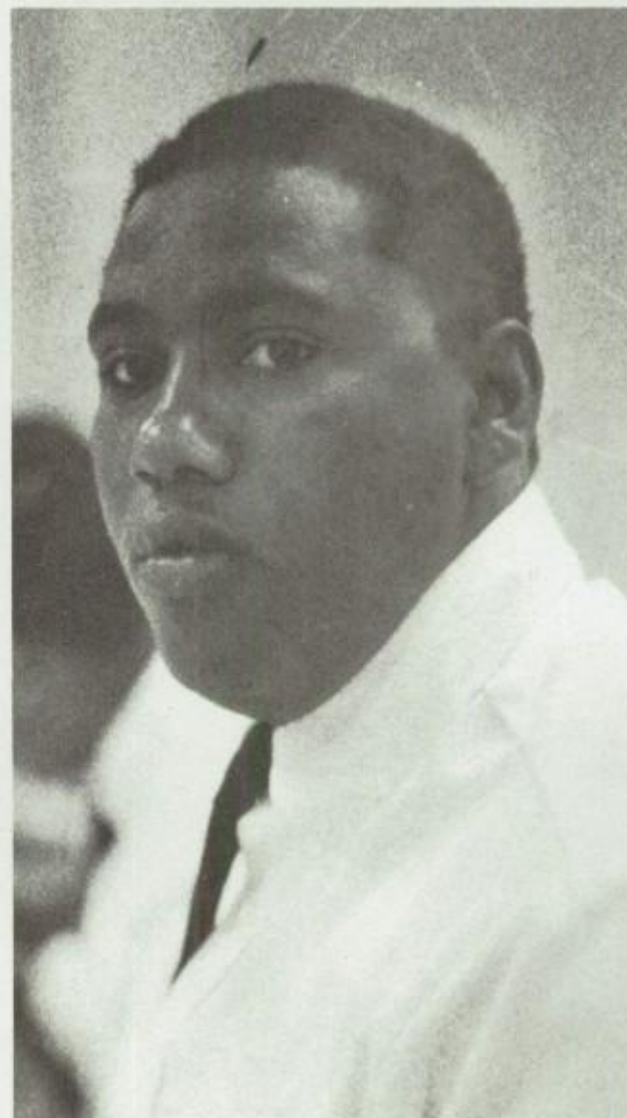

Many goodbyes were said to both students and teachers and also exchanging of memory books. One student remarked, "We've had the best Senior Class yet," and by the peers that make it up many people agree with that statement.

Pat Etheridge and Ron Allred discuss their future plans after graduation.

Honors Day Ceremony

May 26, 1983, in the hot Baker High School gym, the Senior Class of 1983 was very much in the spotlight at the traditional Honors Day. Awards and Certificates of achievement were given to outstanding students in different categories. Honoring the students were some of Mobile's most outstanding citizens. They were: Spencer C. Frost, Executive Vice President of Springdale Plaza, Inc.; The Most Reverend Oscar H. Lipscomb Archbishop from The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Mobile; Janice R. Kennedy, Ph.D. from Academic Dean, S.D. Bishop State Junior College, Lambert C. Mims, Commissioner of Public Works and Associates, Edward L. White, Ed.D. from the West Area Office, Superintendent of Mobile County Public Schools and of course Baker's principal, Kaye F. Brown; David M. Dunaway, Assistant Principal; and Thomas E. Green, Assistant Principal of Baker High School.

Julie Coleman receives her honor on Honors Day.

Seniors await anxiously for the award of achievement to be given.

Lisa White takes her seat during the line up.

The top ten seniors in order, Wayne Ringelburg, Suzanne Simmons, Renee Pajer, Kandy Blackburn, Lisa Lafe, Rey Toole, and Susan LeCoq are recognized at the Honors Day performance.

Fortunate Seniors that received scholarship are Suzanne Simmons, Mary Jane Rice, Kevin Bostic, Wayne Ringelburg, Carol Ann Gibbs, Kel Stustod, Randy Mathews, Rey Toole, Ken Wright, and Anthony Smith.

SENIORS SAY GOOD-BY

All those hours of homework and cramming for exams have definitely paid off for the class of '83.

With both good and bad memories of the school years behind them, seniors eagerly accepted their diplomas.

Graduation ceremonies took place May 31, at 8:00 in the Mobile Municipal Auditorium.

Mrs. Brown handed out the diplomas with Mr. Greene assisting.

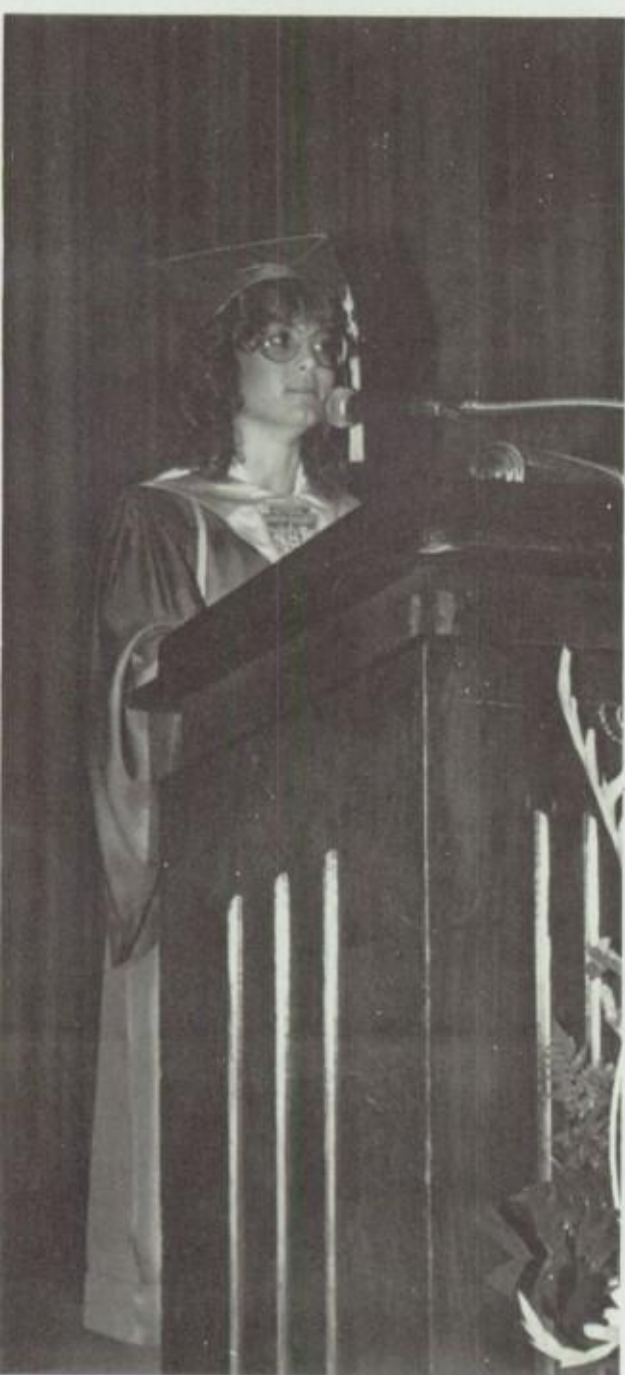

Mr. Dunaway offered words of advice along with distinguished guests; the Reverend Douglas White, Lieutenant Colonel (Ret.) Norman G. Cox, Dr. Jerry Benson, and Dr. Edward White.

Senior's wait impatiently to receive their diplomas.

Hornets Go 2-8 in First 4A Year

In the first game of the season, Coach Odom's Hornets started their first year as a 4-A school with a 6-0 win over B.C. Rain.

The game was a see-saw battle with both teams moving the ball up and down the field. Late in the first quarter, Rain had a chance to score on a 4th and 2, but they elected to run instead of punt. Due to errors on both sides, Baker held on and took over.

With three minutes left in the third quarter, sophomore quarterback, Roger Lee, was hurt on a sack. Senior, Kenny Ferguson was sent in as replacement.

Ferguson came in to take the Hornets down-field for a 12 yard touchdown pass to Greg Pierce.

From here on, the game was a clear victory as Baker won their first game, 6-0.

The Hornets won their first home home game of the season September 3, as they stung the Shaw Rebels, 30-21.

Each time the Hornets touched the ball in the first quarter it meant disaster for the Rebels. The score at the conclusion of the first half was 30-8, Baker.

Chris Wallace was the leading rusher with 153 yards and one touchdown.

The offense took to the air as Kenny Ferguson hurled three attempts and two completions for a total of 45 yards and one touchdown. Chris Wallace and Greg Pierce were the leading receivers with 42 yards between them.

In the second half, the Hornets' second and third string teams had their crack at the error-prone Rebels. The Hornets showed their superior skill as each member of the team got to see some action in the game.

These two games seemed to be indicators of a great season but were in fact the "calm before the storm."

Team after team began to pound away on the Hornets.

First they lost their game with the Gators of Satsuma.

Baker lost their first game Friday, September 10 to the Gators, 24-7. Slight showers dampened the Hornet's spirit as they surrendered eight turnovers, 6 by interception, 2 by fumble.

Baker suffered their second loss of the season as they played the Theodore Bobcats here at Baker September 24. The only two touchdowns for Baker were made by sophomore, Roger Lee, and freshman, Bryan Edwards. At the half the game was tied 14-14 as the Hornet fan's support was encouraging. But as the game progressed the Hornets defenses were let down and the Bobcats had a victory of 42-21.

The Hornets lost game after game but fan support never decreased and team spirit ironically increased. Baker's final record was 2-8.

Spikers

The Lady Spikers had a very successful season this year. While winning eight out of their twelve games, they managed to place two members on all country or all tournament teams.

The Lady Spikers triumphed over teams from Mobile County High School, Williamson High School, Alba High School, Leflore High School, and Bay Minette High School. They lost close matches while playing Satsuma High School, Theodore High School, Thomasville High School, and Citronelle High School.

Rose Jones was named to the Girl's All County Volleyball team with her superb performance during the season. San-San Lockett was named to the All Tournament team.

Cross-Country Stars

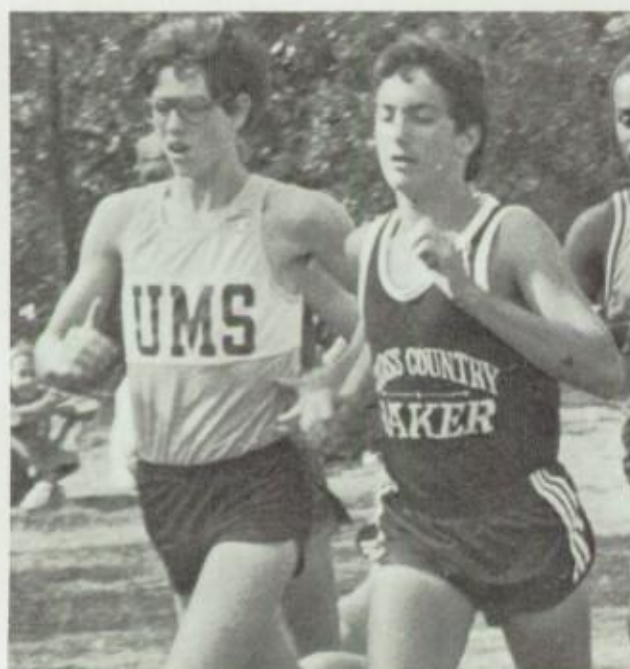

The Baker Cross-Country team participated in eight excruciating meets this year. Although they can not boast of a winning season, the team represented Baker well.

Of ten team members, five lettered this year. They were: Scott Cooper, Ricky Richardson, Jeff Moore, Tom Glaze, and David Oyler.

Outstanding runners this year were: Adam Yarman, Ricky Richardson, and Scott Cooper.

Although Yarman did not letter this year, he has shown excellent running ability in that he holds the team's best time this year of 16:40.8. Close behind Yarman is another super athlete, Ricky Richardson with a best time 17:29. The list of super runners goes on. Names like Alton Bryant, Jerry McCearly, Jeff Moore, Tom Glaze, Scott Cooper, Will Myers and John Veland.

A new school record was by Adam Yarman with a time of 16:40. Also, for the first time in Baker's history, the C.C. defeated U.M.S. on October 16.

Under the leadership of Coach Bob Grube, the fairly young team has held its own against veteran teams such as St. Pauls, U.M.S. and McGill.

As far as participation is concerned, the team has 18 players from the 8th to the 12th grade.

5'10" Team Holds 17-7

At the beginning of the season this year, the 83 Hornets' basketball team appeared to be a "long-shot" team. The team, composed of 2 seniors, 6 juniors, and 3 sophomores, was obviously young and inexperienced. It was Coach Daniel Bumper's task to turn this parking lot team into a well-oiled, fine-tuned basketball machine. Through weeks of vigorous training, windsprints, etc., a prospective team emerged. Their first test was to come on November 19, a home game against Grand Bay.

The Hornets made a good show for themselves by scoring twice as many goals as the opposing team. The final score was 84-42.

The Hornets defeated team after team and were well on their way to their next test, the M.G.M. Tournament.

The first team they would face would be Citronelle. Baker promptly defeated that team with a score of 62-49.

The team leaped out of the frying-pan and into the fire to coin a phrase. The very next day, they faced the awesome Vikings from M.G.M.

Once again, Hornet defense proved to be too much for the opposition. M.G.M. was defeated by an appalling score of 46-29. Sophomore, Jeff Thompson, was awarded the M.V.P. Award for the tournament.

Soon afterward, the team would suffer its first loss. Although the battle was lost, the team had not given up the war.

Coach Bumpers led his relatively short 4-A team all the way to the Regional Tournament of February 21-25.

The first game was against the M.G.M. Vikings and once again the Hornets, by a small margin, defeated M.G.M. 62-50.

Blount, however, defeated the Hornets 45-60.

Joe Jackson was appointed to the All Conference Team following the tournament.

Top players for the team were: Joe Jackson, scoring; Jeff Thompson, rebounding, and John Lofton was considered the best defensive player.

Victor Davis jumps against an opponent to begin the second period..

Chris Wallace, #24, watches a small skirmish in side the lane.

Darion Green takes a high jump-shot from just outside the lane to pick up two points.

J.V. Basketball

Baker's basketball teams have always been of the highest quality.

This year, the J.V. team held a record of 15-5. Key offense was the main factor for this year. The team's total points this season added up to a devastating 1127 (avg. 56 pts. per game).

Leading offensive players were: Derrick Washington, who scored 17 points per game and a 58.7% free throw average, and Chris Rankins, 14 points per game and a 58.8% free throw average.

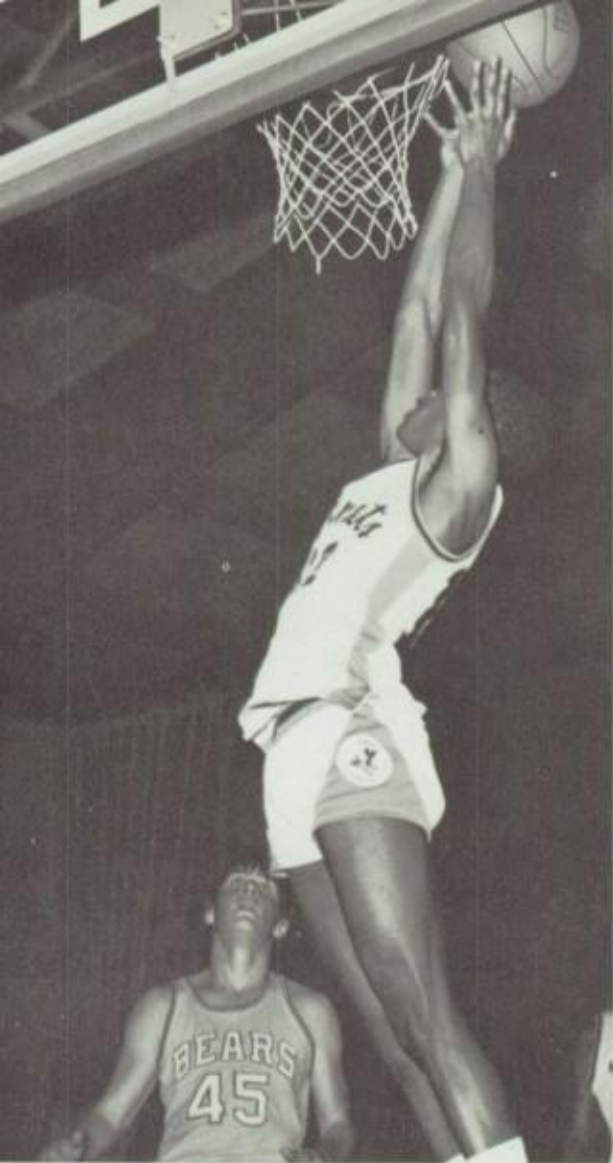

Offense would be to no avail, but for an excellent defense. Top rebounders were: Terrance Hardy, who snatched 130 defensive rebounds, and Ronald Stallworth, who stole 110 rebounds defensively.

Donnie Houseknecht, #44, goes way up for a shot to increase his 46% shot avg., while #10, Chris Rankins, awaits the possible rebound.

Ladies Hold 20-3

The 1982-83 Lady Hornets Basketball team held an outstanding record this season of 20 wins and 3 losses to top last year's 9-10.

The ladies lost only thrice to such teams as J.T. Wright, Baldwin Co., and Satsuma.

Key defense kept each opponent to below 37 points each game while allowing Hornet offense to score an average of 44.3 points per game.

Trackstars Do It Again

Once again this year, Baker's track team broke many school records.

In the freshmen level, Mike McMillian set new records in the 100 m. and the 200 m. dashes. Three records are attributed to Bryan Edwards. Edwards set new times in the 400 m. dash, 800 m. dash, and the 300 m. intermediate hurdles.

At the varsity level, Alton Bryant now holds records in 800 m. dash 1500 m. and the 1600 m. dashes, while Ricky Richardson holds the 3200 m. dash. Senior, Terry Livingston possesses the record in the 330 yd. intermediate hurdles.

The varsity relay team of James, Bryant, Thames, and Livingston ran a 44:91 400 m. while Smith, Bryant, Thames and Livingston performed a 3:30.7 1600 m.

McMillian, Edwards, Thompson, and Hutchinson were appointed to the freshmen state team while Bryant Richardson, Livingston, Thames and Smith were appointed to the varsity state team.

Art Club

The Art Club is a small club of 15 talented members, sponsored by Ms. Barnes. Its purpose is to be of service to the Art Department and the school, while also providing opportunities for reward and enrichment for its members.

Members have exhibited their art work at numerous shows this year such as the Greater Gulf Coast Fair, Junior Arts Fair, P.T.A. Art Show, the Youth Art Month Exhibit at Bel Air Mall, and many other places.

Students felt a sense of pride as they not only provided their school with talent, but also their community.

The art department sign shows the pride Baker students take in art.

B-Club

To be a member of the B-Club, you must first letter in one of Baker's varsity sports. This is open to cheerleaders as well as participants in sports. Once in the club, you must uphold the objective to promote better athletics, school spirit and loyalty, and the development of good sportsmanship.

This year's 40 B-Club members sponsored the Teacher Variety Show. With the money left from last year's club and money made from the Variety Show, the club has contracted to purchase a flag pole and flag for the football field and a flag for the gym. They have also made plans to purchase a video outfit for the athletic department.

B-Club members, Terry Broadus, mans the popcorn machine during a basketball game to raise money for the B-Club.

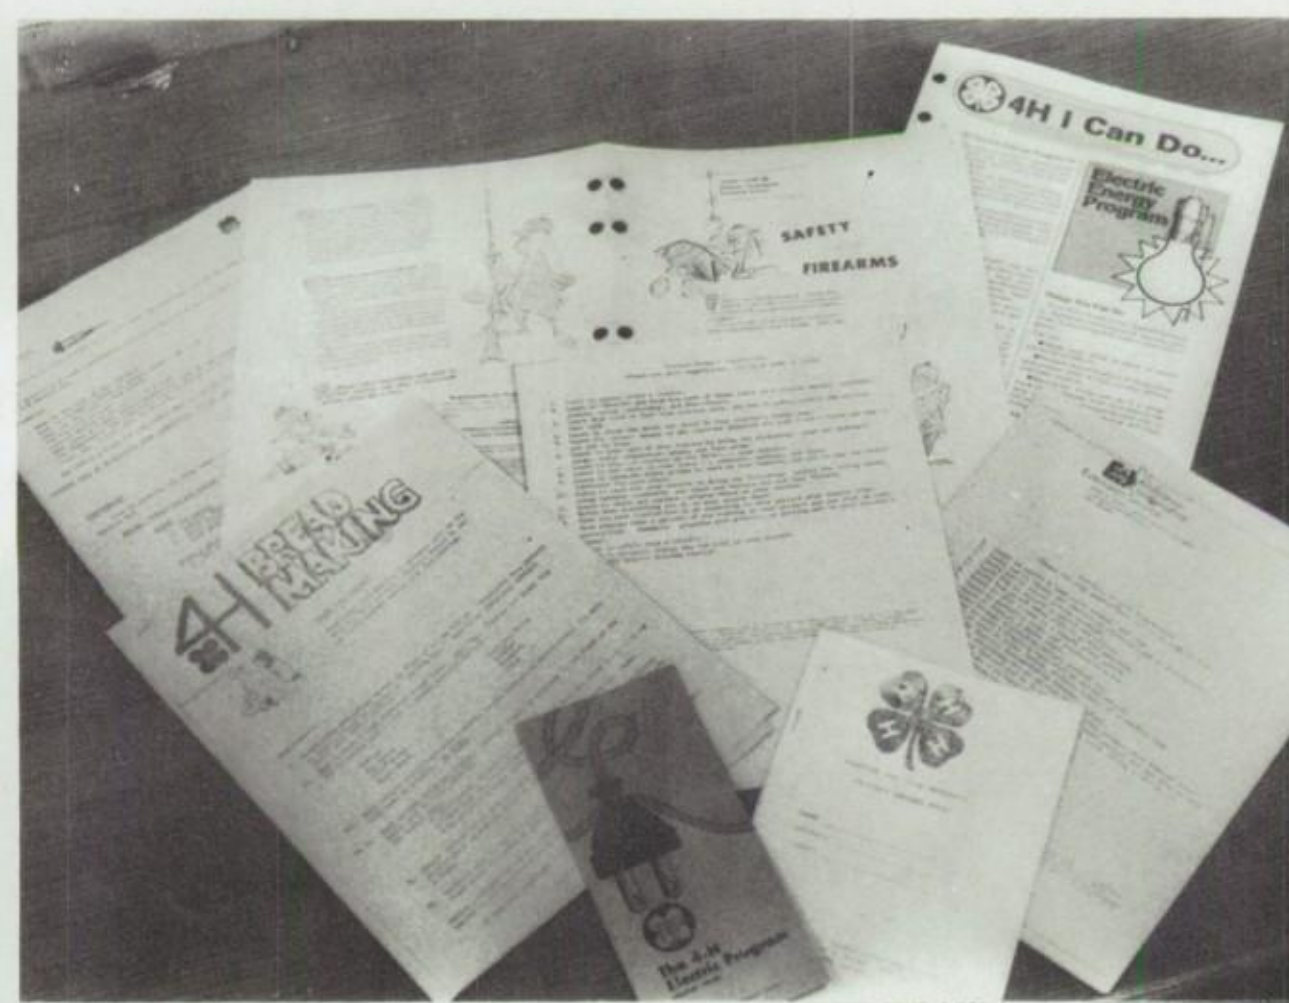

Boy's 4-H

Upon entering Boy's 4-H, members were given a booklet of suggested projects to complete such as 1) Learn how to repair stereo speakers, 2) Learn how to make a flashing lamp with an on/off switch, 3) Enter the Electric Demo Contest, and many more.

They were to have someone take a picture of them working on a project, record the time spent, and put the picture in their booklet. Once they learned how to do one of these helpful tasks, they showed their fellow club members how it was done.

Members were awarded with ribbons and certificates for their accomplishments. The skills they learned will help them in situations faced in everyday life.

Girls' 4-H

The four H's, "Health, Heart, Hands, and Head" are carried out in this club's goal to promote interaction between students and their community.

The club consists of approximately 20 females from grades 9-12. Although there are mostly seventh and eighth graders involved.

Some of the activities 4-H participated in this year included various contests around Mobile such as Baking, Home-making, essay papers, Ecology posters, and talent.

A 4-H notebook was also completed and acorns were collected to plant oak trees that Fredric took away.

Sponsor, Mrs. Erdman, commented that she believes Girls' 4-H is a good beginning for students, and she was well pleased with this year's club.

Baker's Band Bigger and Better

Baker's band is getting bigger and better every year. The band consisted of 120 dedicated members this year, and will have 140 next year.

Without these 140 members, adding excitement and enthusiasm, Baker's pep rallies and football games would not have been the same.

They not only played at games and pep rallies, but also during Mardi Gras, graduation, the welcoming of President Marcos of the Philippines, and for spring and winter concerts.

Competition, a well-known word to the ambitious group, took place at the Deep South Marching Contest at Ladd Stadium and the Picayune Marching Festival in Picayune, Mississippi.

The band participated in numerous fund raisers because as Mr. Faison commented, "It takes tons of money to be successful!"

Auxiliary Band Adding Color and Flash

Adding color and flash to the marching band is a group called the Auxiliary Band. It's made up of the Dance Team, and Flag and Rifle Corps.

Members were chosen through tryouts by judges after a week of training in each individual group.

The Auxiliary Band marched with the Marching Band during football season, Mardi Gras, and also participated in marching contests. Many times the Dance Team entertained the audience during pep rallies.

Each individual group was actively involved in car washes, doughnut sales, and many other fund raisers done as a group.

The Auxiliary Band was a welcomed addition to the band during marching season.

Baker's High Steppers work hard and are rewarded with near perfection.

With BAKER'S PRIDE the flag and dance team march on the field.

Baker's flag and rifles show their team work.

The 1983 Dance Team performs one of their many routines for the Baker fans.

Chorus

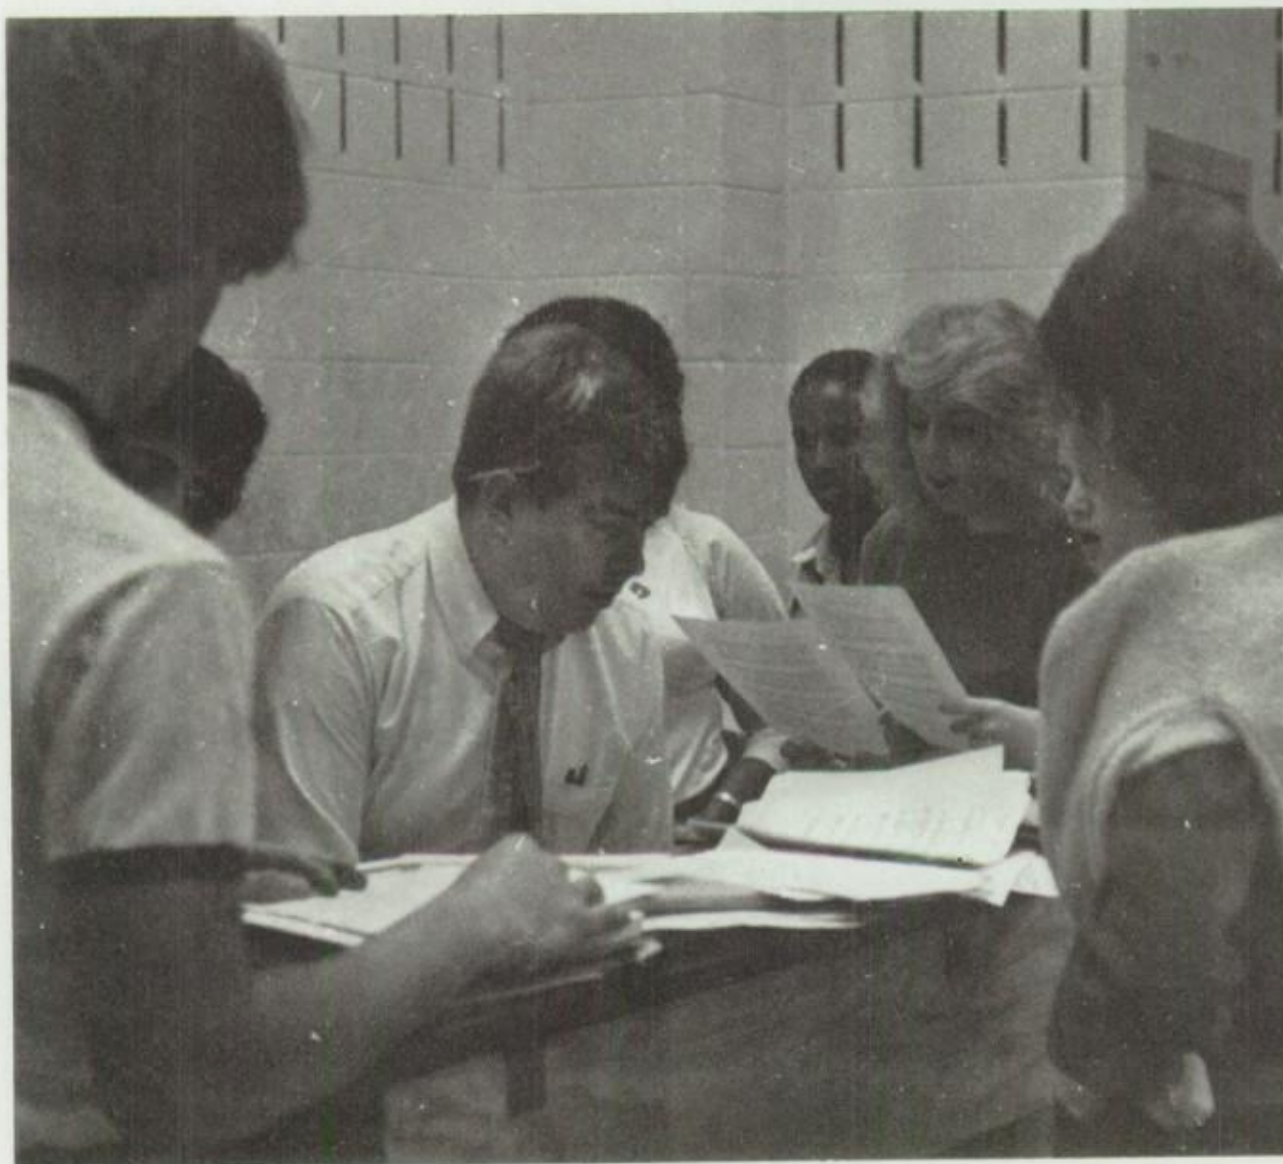

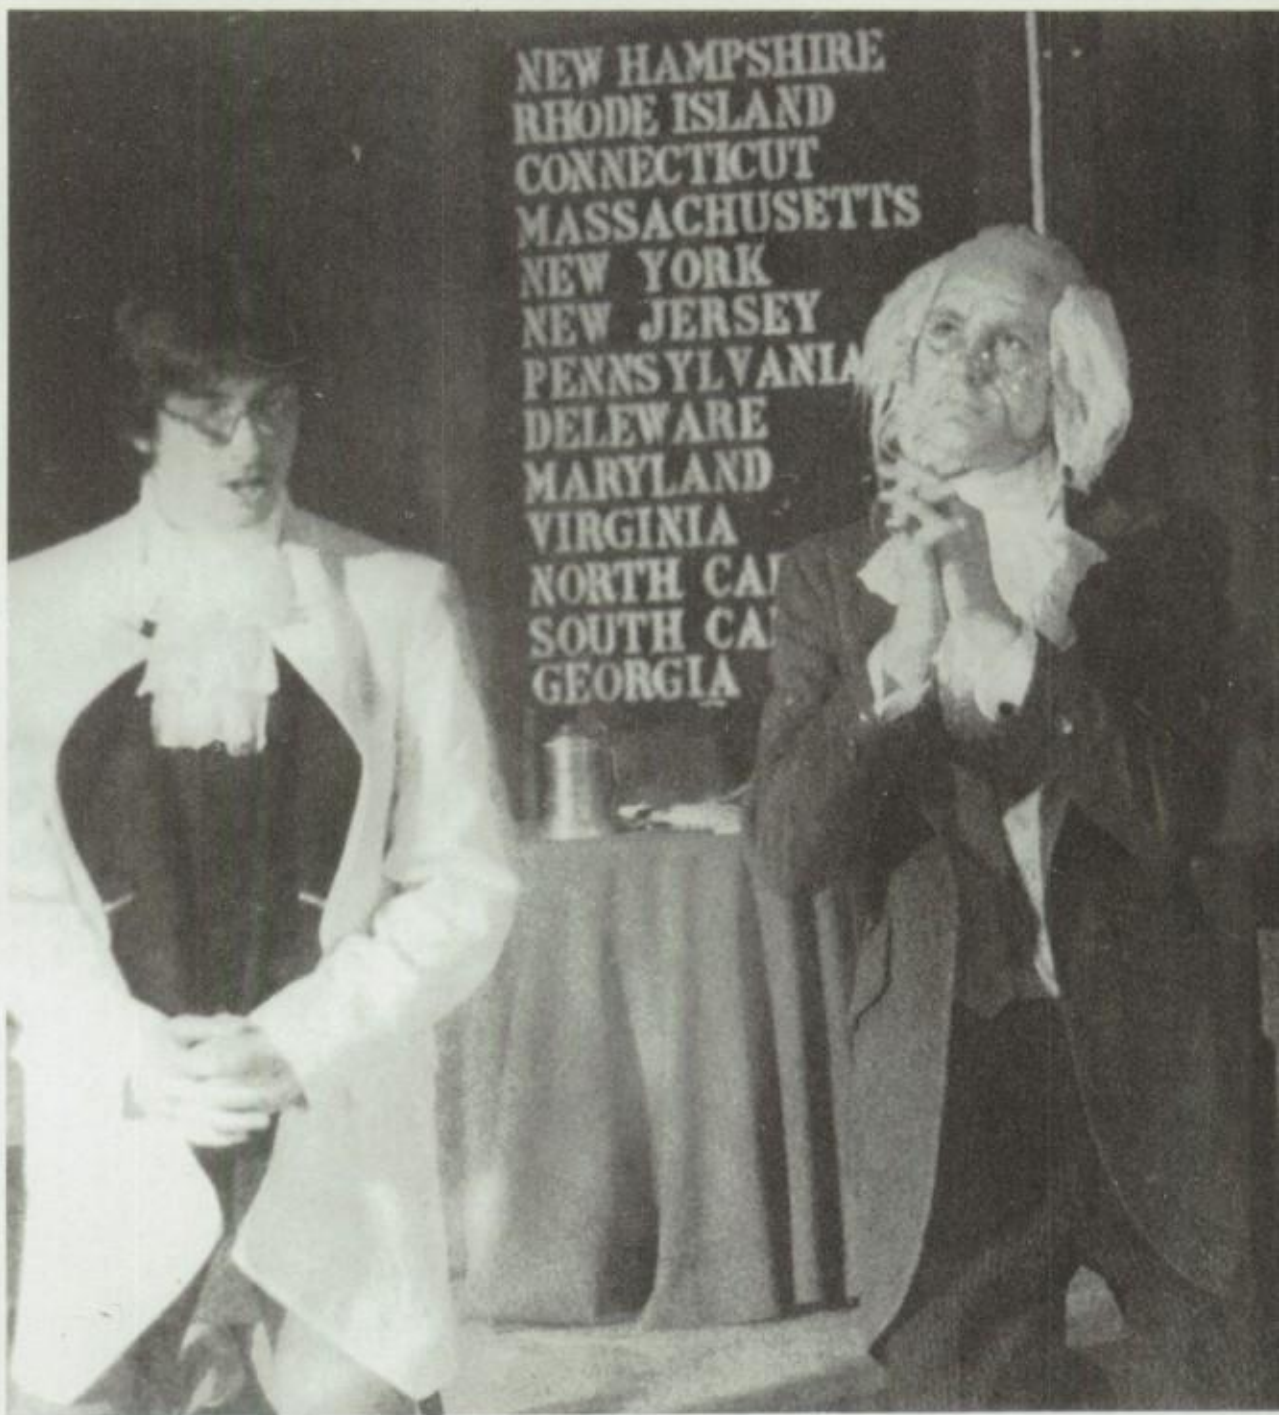

Baker's Chorus includes 9-12 grades and is directed by Mr. Clinton Doolittle. They did many activities such as singing in the Malls and presenting the musical, "1776".

A more advanced group of chorus members is called "The Baker's Dozen" and its members are Marvin Aikens, Jim Tadlock, Vincent Jackson, Arnold Tillman, Becky Vanlwarden, Julie Coleman, Jeff Coleman, Vernita Wilson, Laura Foster, Robbie McKinnel, Randy Matthews, and Spence Whigham.

The group was involved in several vocal competitions. They went to Troy State for the State competition and to UMS for district.

Bakers Dozen also sang at various places for the public during the year.

They participated at the annual Christmas candle light singing at the Oakleigh house as well as for several school board officers at the West Area Office.

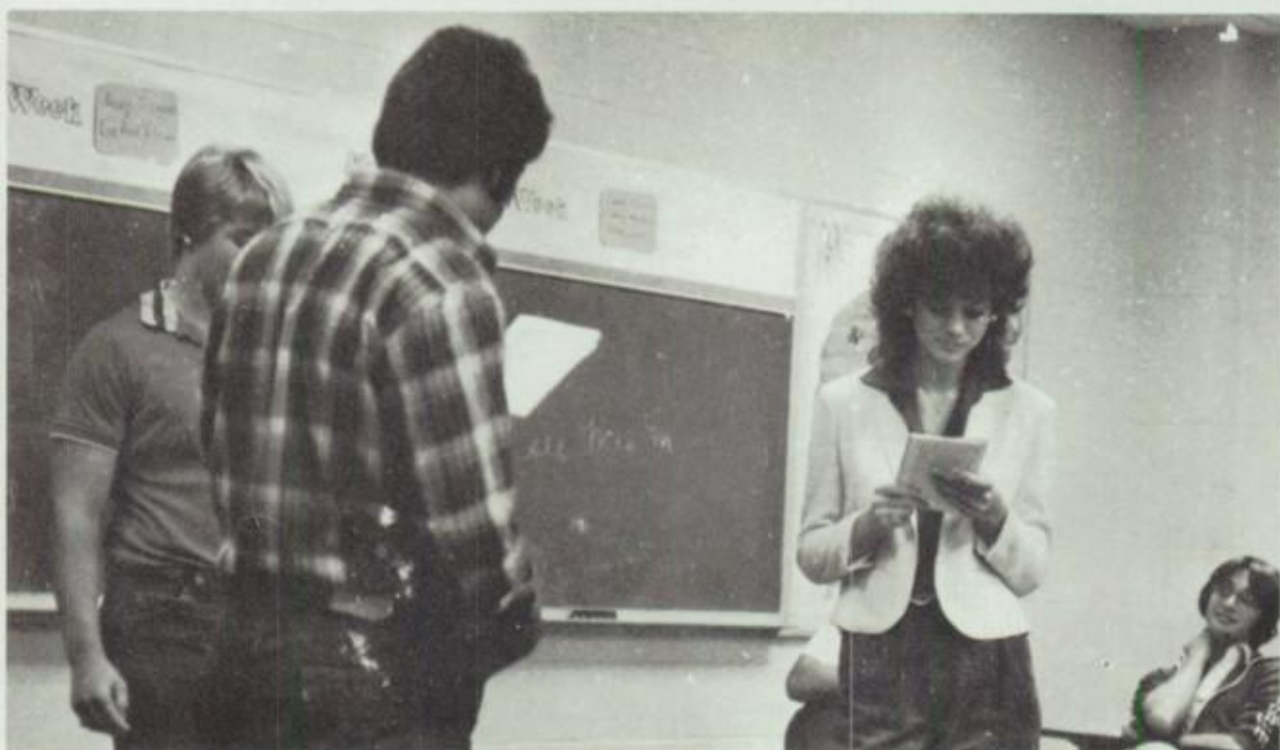

Drama—A Real Success

In order to be a success, each year drama students work to accomplish certain goals. They involve the school and community in dramatic activities. They give the students an appreciation of drama yesterday and today. They gain self-confidence. They build up, secure, and add to the drama facilities.

Approximately 90 students make up the very active drama classes. This year's classes participated in a Christmas play for the school, a one-act play first semester, an air guitar contest, second semester, and a variety show to end the year.

The memory made from these activities will go towards a marquis sign which is to be contributed to the school. Mrs. Mullin also hopes to spend funds on make-up, costumes, lights, etc.

Teresa Bondora and Felecia Jernigan decide that sometimes you need to see the lines to do it right. Baker drama students give their version of "Dancing In The Streets".

Jim Porter "feels good all under"!

Scott Slocum, Allen Carroll, and Terri Talton show that Seniors act it better.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Baker's 1982-83 varsity cheerleaders consisted of ten girls who worked together for the same goal. This goal was to be the best cheerleader squad, to lead students and parents in sports functions to the best of their abilities, and to bring a good attitude into the crowd.

This year's varsity cheerleaders were: Karen Andrews, Teresa Bondora, Bonnie Cook, Marnie Erdman, Felecia Jernigan, Ginger Lowell, Kim Loyd, Candy Nelson, Sherri Roberts, and Suzanne Simmons.

To finance the squad, the girls sold doughnuts, held a car wash, sponsored a dance, and put on a bake sale. Other activities included helping Mrs. Brown with Baker's annual orientation and marching at the Christmas parade at Bel Air Mall.

A tie for second place at the NCA clinic and a first place in varsity at the University of South Alabama gave credit to the girls for their hard work.

J.V. Cheerleaders Coming Out On Top

Without the enthusiasm of the J.V. cheerleaders to cheer the Hornet's on, where would they be?

The 1982-83 group consisted of Captain, Angie Mallory; Co-Captain, Kelly Sheffield; Dara Wimpee, Ashley Foreman, Kim Cook, Kelly Collins, Dawn Partain, Tracey Howell, Kim Keenum, Stephanie Smith, Amy Mallory, Tanya Mills, and Kristy Warren.

The girls, sponsored by Mrs. Beth Hayes, participated in fund raisers such as the selling of balloons during the Homecoming football game, and car washes.

In August, the cheerleaders attended a National Cheerleading clinic at U.S.A. During the four nights of evaluation, they were judged on spirit, smiles, gymnastic and cheering abilities, and togetherness.

They proudly received 4 first place ribbons, and also a spirit stick. These girls not only did well at clinic but were also awarded a first place trophy in a U.S.A. Cheeroff they attended this year.

C.F.C.

The Christian Fellowship club started 6 or 7 years ago when Mrs. Stanford was the sponsor. Les Carol served as the first president during his junior and senior years. Meetings were held in portables and there were 5 to 10 members.

This year the club was sponsored by Mrs. Daniels. There were approximately 30 members and the club was held in room 114 on Tuesday mornings. On club day, C.F.C. met in room 244.

The officers were President, Spence Whigham; Vice President, Rachel Lambert; Secretary and Treasurer, Anita Charest, and Becky Van Iwaarden was in charge of scheduling speakers.

The club had speakers from Dawes Baptist Church, Gulf Coast Covenant Church, Cottage Hill Baptist Church, and others. Some of the speakers were John Stanks, Mike Reed, Bruce Longtreth, Reggie Phillips and Roger Phillips.

The Christian Fellowship Club met in order to raise Jesus. They read the Bible, sang praises, and prayed. Most of the members of this club were Christians, but you don't have to be a Christian to join. There are no qualifications for being a member of C.F.C.

Roger Phillips, Youth Leader at Dawes Baptist Church, spoke many times and was a familiar face to all C.F.C. members.

Chess Club

The purpose of the chess club is to teach the intellectual sport of chess to as many students as possible, and to compete in the Mobile County High School Chess League.

The Chess Club was open to any student who wished to learn the game and has a 2.5 or better grade point average.

This year's club consisted of approximately twenty-five members. Of the members, there was a five person "A" team which competed in the County League. The "B" team won the third place trophy this year.

D.E.C.A.

The Deca club has been a great asset to our school this year.

In this class, students were taught to believe in the future for which they were planning for themselves in the field of marketing and distribution and in the opportunities which their vocation offered.

They also believed that in fulfilling the highest measure of service to their vocation, fellow beings, their country and God, they would be rewarded with personal satisfaction and material wealth.

Mr. Howard was the sponsor and Bart Clover was the president of the Distributive Educational Clubs of America.

Chapter Membership Award

BAKER HIGH SCHOOL

The above Chapter is hereby granted this honor certificate in recognition for its 100% student membership in both the state and national associations of the Distributive Education Clubs of America. Student financial support insures the existence of DECA. Total Chapter involvement contributes to occupational competency, social intelligence, civic consciousness, leadership development and economic understanding for each Chapter member.

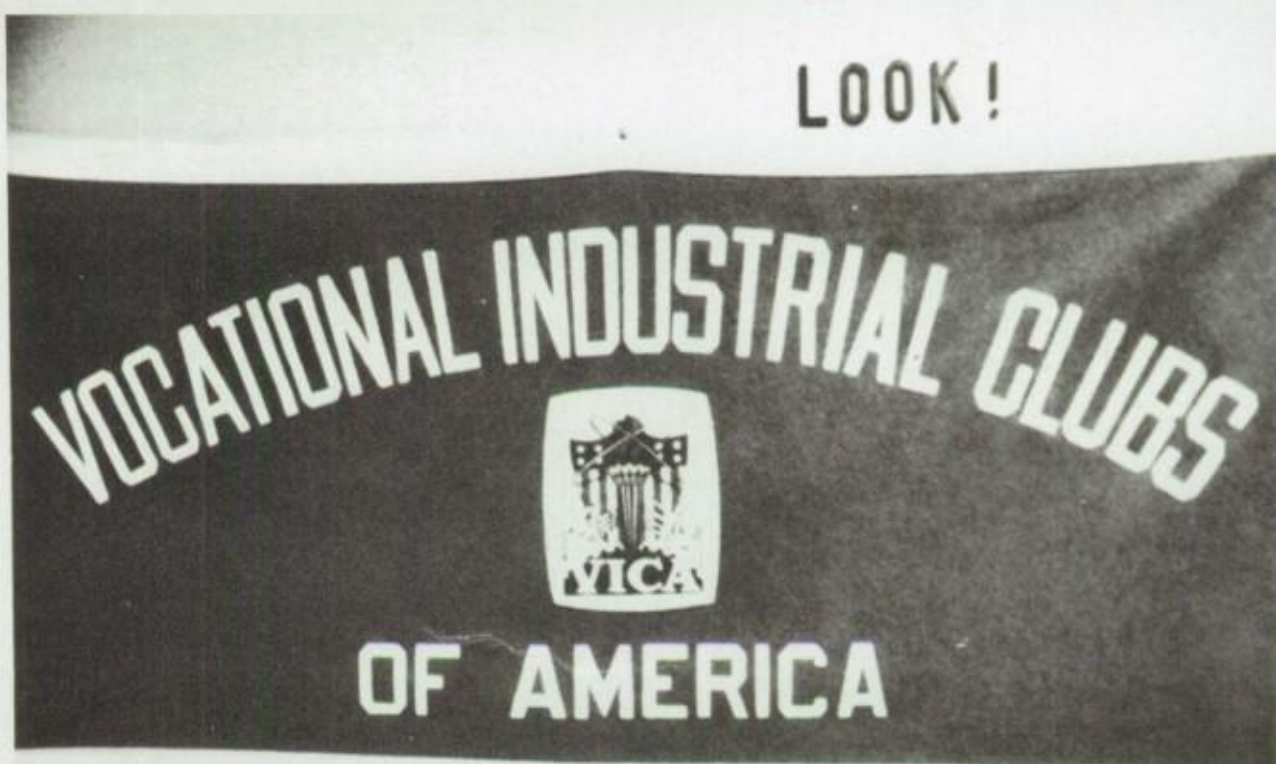

VICA

The VICA Club (Vocational Industrial Clubs of America) is made up of students that have completed requirements for the last two years of school. They must be 16 years of age, have their parents consent to enter training have good school records and show personality traits for the chosen occupational training.

The VICA Club offers a number of activities for the members. In the fall there are football games and cookouts with Murphy and Satsuma High Schools. There is also an annual Christmas party and a Christmas dinner for a needy family.

In the spring the Club competes in the District V VICA Skills Contest with the winners going on to the State finals. This year Baker had six first place winners and four second places.

President for the 1982-83 year was Byron Pittman and the sponsor was Mr. James King.

Journalism I, II, and III—Devoted

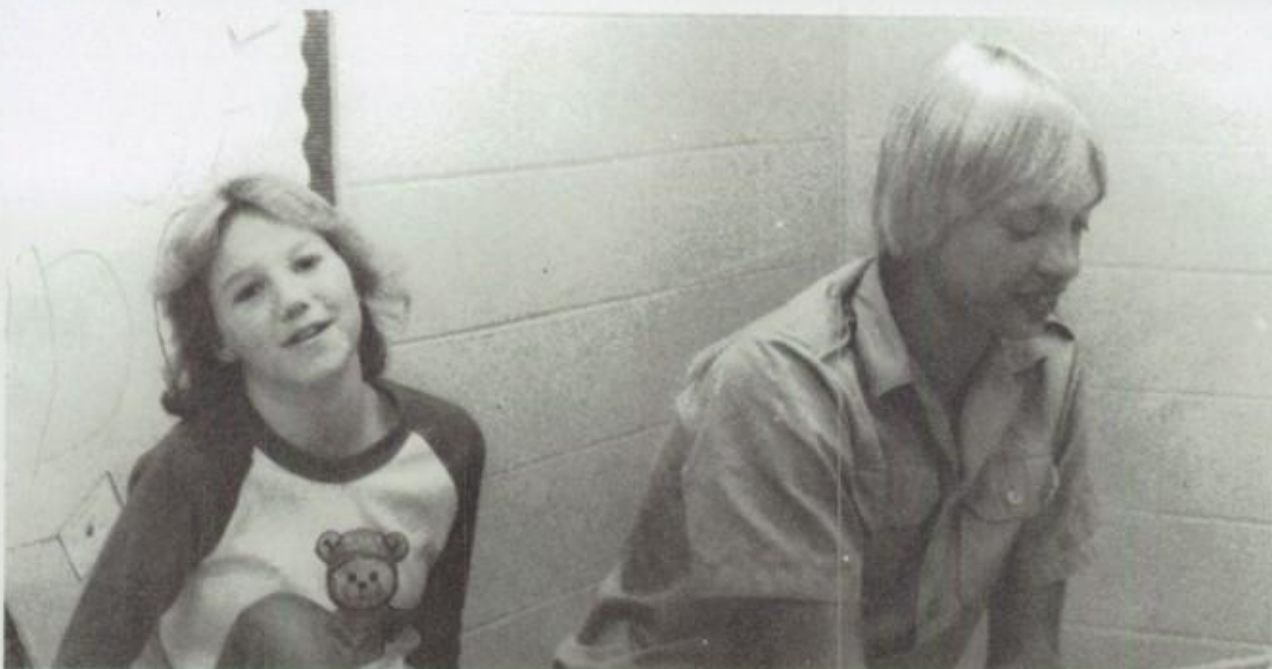

The purpose of the 1982-83 Journalism staff was to develop their writing skills to the very best of their ability and to produce a yearbook that portrays a year in the lives of Baker students.

Through this class, students learn about photos and captions, how to conduct interviews, how to write copy, and then how to lay it all out.

To increase their journalistic skills and to adopt new ideas and techniques for the betterment of the yearly publication, students attended a 1982 summer work shop at U.S.A. They also visited Herff Jones in Montgomery, their new yearbook plant.

To help finance the book, members sold Spirit rags, wooden calendars, Christmas ornaments, first aid kits, and most importantly, ads during the summer.

As they tried to capture the memories of Baker students throughout the year, Journalism I, II, and III students formed a sense of responsibility, and much patience and dedication.

Stephanie Formwalt, Chris Whitney, and Kim Whatley take time out to discuss the latest gossip.

More experienced worker, Cynthia Zackrison, helps newcomer Barbie Gibbs.

Senior Kendall Barackman decides it's time for a rest.

F.B.L.A.

Baker's F.B.L.A. is sponsored by Mrs. Janice Cate, Business Office Education teacher.

Its officers consist of Maureen Finlay, President; Peggy Bender, Vice President; Lisa Foster, Secretary; and Lisa Farill, Treasurer.

Its purpose is to learn new business skills and to use them in conjunction with the club. It also is to let this nation know that the future holds great prosperity for business and business people.

F.B.L.A. was involved in many interesting activities this year, such as two fund raisers, a District meeting and an annual F.B.L.A. Banquet on May 17.

At the District meeting, held on March 26, there were competitions for F.B.L.A. members from 15 different business categories. Each participant showed courage, responsibility, and ambition by participating.

It has been said that by being a member of F.B.L.A., you have your foot in the doorways of the business world. Then you must strive to produce your very best.

Members Debbie Shirley, Lisa Polk, Cindy Grissett, Karen Peabody, Consheda Wallace, Robin

Wheeler, and Sherri Hall show off the F.B.L.A. information board.

Dana Gardner, Cindy Gasaway, and Marjorie Gollott urge everyone to join F.H.A.

FHA

The Future Homemakers of America is an organization for both girls and boys who have had at least one year of Family Living or Home Economics, and an interest in family life.

The purpose of FHA is to promote student growth in leadership both in school and in community activities. It's also to encourage high standards of morality and family life.

FHA had a busy year as they participated in two Family Living Weddings, and a Fashion Show during Christmas-time. During a week called "FHA week," members sold tickets for students to attend a Family Life Film Fair during the lunch waves. Films were shown on birth defects and how to bring families closer.

A District Meeting at Theodore High School in which 6 delegates were sent, and a State Meeting in Montgomery in which 8 delegates were sent successfully closed the year.

The new 1982-83 F.E.C. T-shirts portray the club attitude of "We care!"

"We care" is the motto of the Friends of Exceptional Children (F.E.C.) club. If it weren't for this worthwhile organization made up of 54 members, many special children and adults in and around Mobile would not receive help given them each year.

F.E.C. participates annually in 10 parties for retarded citizens of Mobile and helps these people to better enjoy special occasions.

A Christmas party in Prichard and horseback riding in Citronelle for Easter were the highlights of the club this year.

YGIP

The most significant thing about this year's Y.G.I.P. club is the change of the club's name. It was formally called Model U.N. (United Nations). Since the club participated in two other political meets besides Model U.N., the name was changed to Y.G.I.P. (Youth in Government and International Politics).

Y.G.I.P.'s officers consist of Randy Matthews, President; Julie Jones, Treasurer; Debbie Sullivan, Secretary, and Cynthia Zackrison, Parliamentarian.

This year's calendar included: participation in Youth Legislation in which students explored state politics; participation in Presidential Classroom in which students explored politics in youth government; and Model U.N. in which students explored international politics in a United Nations atmosphere.

In the Model U.N. meet Baker students won three awards: Best Delegation, Cynthia Zackrison and Randy Matthews; and Best Delegate SC Committee 2nd place, Debbie Sullivan.

Through these three meets, the club reached their purpose of introducing students to politics on international, national, and state levels.

This history bulletin board shows just a few of the issues discussed in Y.G.I.P.

Key Club

The Key club began three years ago, and has been successful ever since.

The main goal of all key club members was to develop initiative and leadership.

Key club provides experience in working in group activities. It also prepared students for useful citizenship, and helped them to learn how to better serve the school and the community.

N.H.S.

M.I.Y.A.

Through the Mobile International Youth Association, students gained an understanding of international relationships. They were given the opportunity to study other languages, and then use them to communicate with those who speak them.

Officers consisted of President, Kim Broadwater; Vice President, Karla Jongbloed; Secretary, Monique Blackwell; and Treasurer, Sue Etheridge.

Sue, Kim, and Karla also served as representatives on the MIYA Steering Committee.

An International Food Festival where members met and communicated with foreign-speaking people and a SCI Run were the highlights of the club's activities.

MIYA proved to be a worthwhile and interesting club as this was its first year at Baker.

Some very active members of MIYA are Sue Etheridge, Karla Jongblood, and Gabriel Voss.

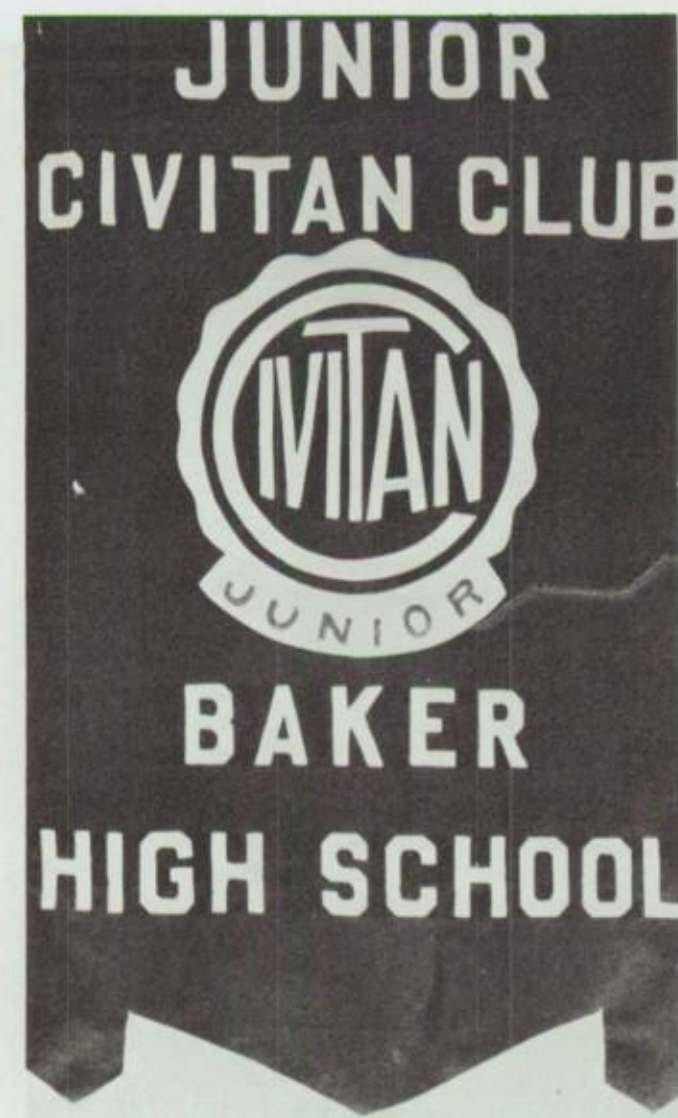

Jr. Civitan

Junior Civitan is "A Service Club for youth," tailored specifically for training young people to become "Builders of Good Citizenship" in the home, the school, the community, and the nation. Its purpose is to develop initiative and leadership to encourage youth to live a fuller life enriched with unselfish service to others, and to give primary to daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships.

Baker's Jr. Civitan officers (Patricia Lumpkin, President; Donna Bolton, Vice President; Renee Pajer, Secretary; La Shea Broadus, Treasurer) led its 15 members in four major projects. Their first was the talent show in the fall called "Talents in Bloom." Their second was the annual "Hornet Night" contest which consisted of a beauty pageant, a dance, and class favorite selections. Their third was a car wash and their fourth was sending candy to the Albert Brewer Center at Christmas.

Students strived to work hard for both their community and their school.

HONOR UNIT, R.O.T.C.

For the second year now, Baker's J.R.O.T.C. has been awarded the honor unit rating, distinguishing them as one of the top units in the county.

Under the supervision of Col. James McIntyre and MSG Walter Pollock, the cadets learn teamwork, responsibility, first aid, map reading, marksmanship, and oral communication to name a few. Cadets are also given leadership roles such as those attained by cadets Lorie Moons and James Rosier. Cadet Moons was awarded the position of Brigade Commander and given command of all cadets in Mobile County. Cadet Rosier was awarded the position of Brigade Sergeant Major and given command over all enlisted cadets in Mobile County.

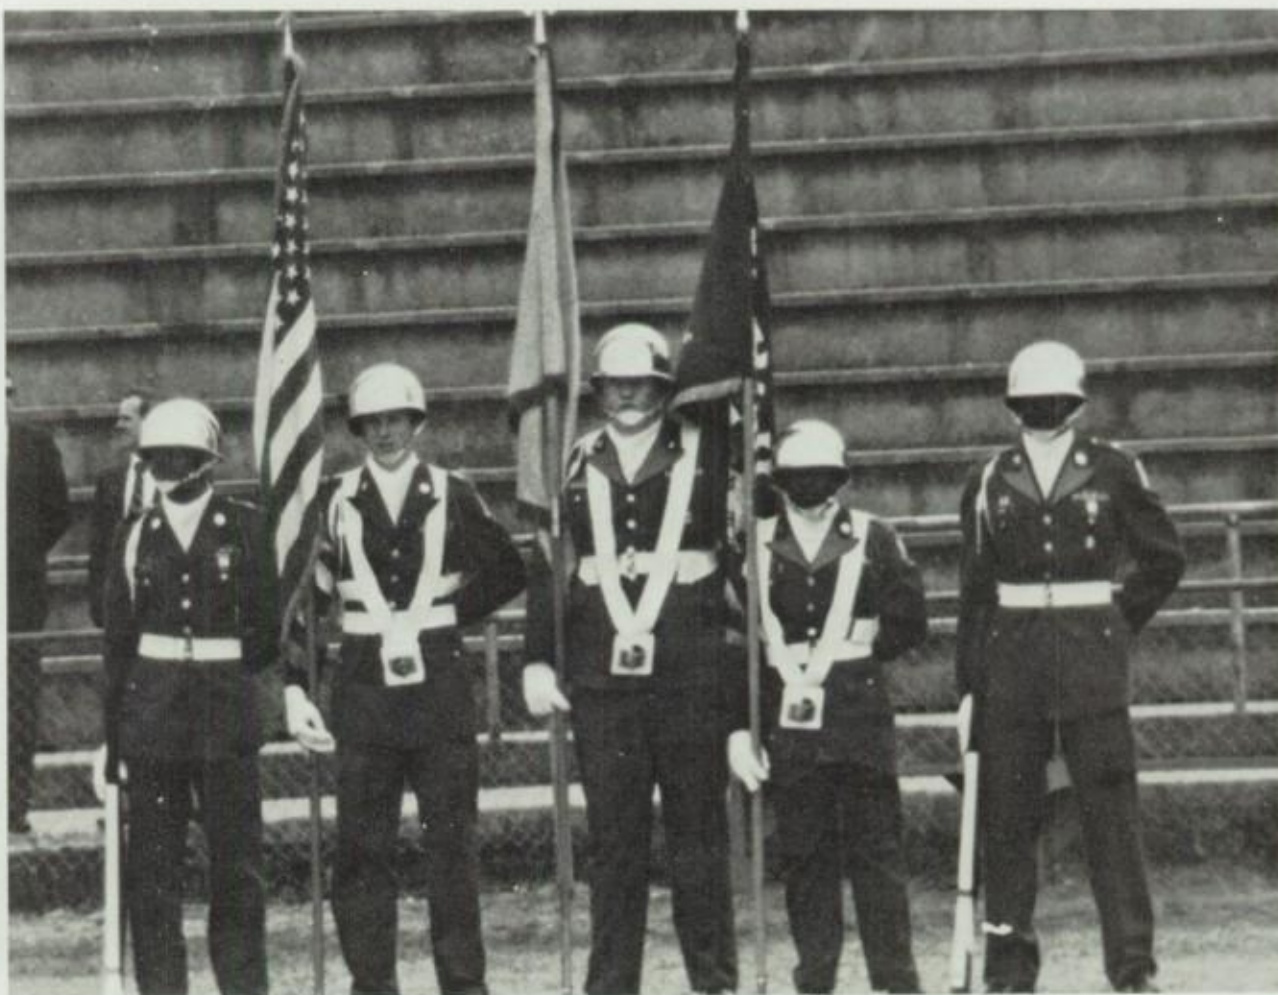

Ask any cadet what his goal for next year is and he will say, "To be all I can be!"

Col. James McIntyre cheerfully accepts comments about his cadets.

The battalion is formed.

High School S.C.A.

The High School S.C.A. upheld pride and spirit as they worked hard to carry out their many important purposes. Some of them were to develop attitudes of and practice in good citizenship, promote harmonious relations throughout the school, improve school morale, assist in the management of the school, provide a forum for student expression, provide orderly direction of school activities, and promote the general welfare of the school and community.

S.C.A. began the school year with a teacher welcome. They sponsored Homecoming, Challenge of the Classes, the Christmas door decoration contest, which was something new and exciting at Baker, the blood drive, Sweetheart Contest and Dance, and Student elections. The Secret Pal luncheon was also sponsored by S.C.A.

The High School Student Council, made up of approximately 75 members, not only sponsored these school activities, but they sent flowers to students and faculty who were sick and in the hospital, they put books in the media center in memory of student and faculty members whose loved ones died during the school year, and since 1967, S.C.A. has sponsored an American Indian boy who lives in Oklahoma.

During the summer, they met regularly and planned school events for the following year. They also attended the state workshop at Tuscaloosa in July as they closed the busy 1982-83 year.

1982-83 SCA officers were; Suzanne Simmons, President, Lisa Patterson, Vice President, Rey Toole, Secretary, and Carol Ann Gibbs, Treasurer. Sponsor was Mrs. Dupree.

SCA officers Suzanne Simmons and Rey Toole, take time out from Homecoming's busy schedule.

SCA sponsor Mrs. Dupree, discusses the future fund raising plans.

Middle School S.C.A.

The middle school student council's main objective was to enhance our school program through service, good citizenship, and building of the students' character. It also was to build a foundation in student council for future service.

The approximate 30 members were extremely involved this year as they welcomed teachers back to school, prepared thanksgiving baskets for the less fortunate, and held a Baker's Best Contest at the Spring Dance which they also sponsored. But, a special project that S.C.A. members seem to especially enjoy each year is the participation of secretly admiring teachers assigned to them. They did this by putting secret pal notes and occasionally small gifts in the teachers' boxes throughout the year, and then at the closing of the year they had a Secret Pal Luncheon where members excitedly met their Secret Pals.

1982-83 SCA Officers were; Nancy Russell, President, April Boyd, Vice-President, Karlene Walch, Secretary, and Rhett Vause, Treasurer. Sponsor was Miss Cody.

Middle School SCA President, Nancy Russell, still has time for school function even with her busy schedule.

CLASSES

Class of "83"

Senior: a small word which means a great deal to almost 260 Baker students. To these students, Senior means prestige, good times and anticipation.

Senior influence is seen through out the school. It is seen in the halls during spirit week, at sporting events in the way of signs and yells, and in the gymnasium during assemblies.

Good times is something the class of "83" knows all about. The good times include going to the Junior-Senior Prom with that special someone, the late night "study" parties with friends, senior skip day at the beach, graduation parties which last into the early hours, and the football games where they cheered Baker on to victory.

The seniors anticipate and worry about the coming year. A common question for them is "Where will I be next year?" The answers range from being in college or the military to having a job or being married.

Although the class of "83" doesn't know what lies ahead, they do know one thing; they are the best class to have ever graduated from Baker.

Rey Toole and Dana Sullins give a big senior smile for the photographers. Azalea Trail Maid, Kandy Blackburn, displays her beautiful antebellum dress during the Homecoming festivities. Mark Broadus and Ryan Daugherty are caught doing something unusual . . . studying. Ryan Daugherty and Frank Browning get down with Lisa LaFe and Leah Bright at the Homecoming dance. Susan Totty, Lisa Patterson, Dana Sullins, and Rey Toole take time out during a senior class meeting to pose for a picture.

For seniors, John Taylor, Melvin Preyer, Sherrie Prowl, Derrick Saulter and Alicia Pettway, posing for a picture seems much more interesting than ordering cap and gowns.

Administration

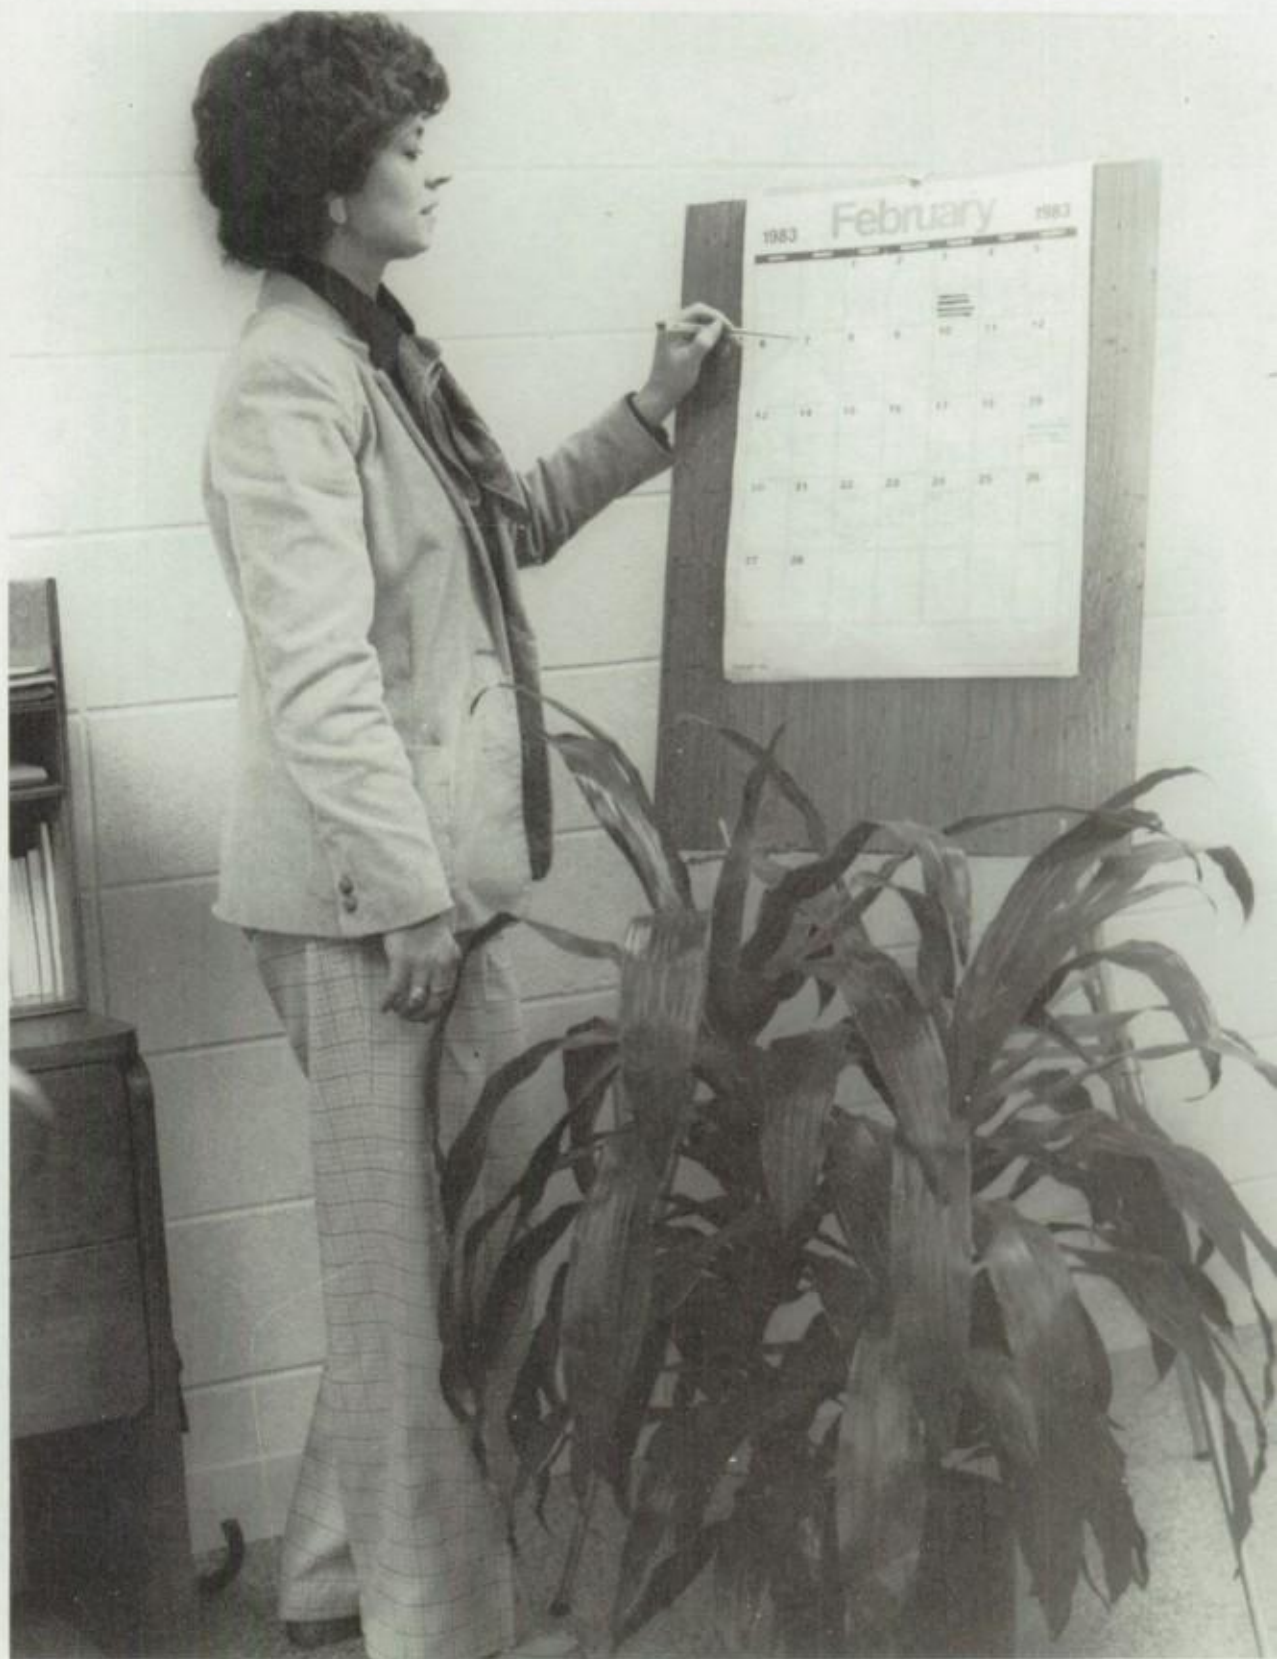

The administration, a vital link between the faculty, parents and students, saw a dramatic change this year.

This year they lost two members, Mr. Alfred July and Suzye Gaillard, while gaining two. July was promoted to principal of a local middle school while Gaillard was transferred to Mary G. Montgomery.

The two new members were Thomas Green, assistant principal and Susan Flynn, instructional specialist.

Although, students missed July and Gaillard, Green and Flynn were soon accepted into the Baker family.

Class of 84

The Junior Class was very busy throughout the entire 1982-83 school year. With preparing for the prom and getting class rings, the Juniors never had a dull moment.

A shirt sale and a magazine sale were among the fund-raising activities sponsored by the Juniors. All these activities were projected toward the highlight for the year, the prom.

Every year the prom is sponsored by the Junior Class, and these Juniors wanted the prom to be the best ever. At the Junior Class meeting, many important decisions were made concerning the prom.

The big decisions were: "Truly" for the theme, Damascus as the band, and the place and date, April 8th at Expo Hall.

With this behind them, plans for decorations and food were made. All of these decisions made the 1983 prom "Truly" one to remember.

After their Junior worries about prom were over, the greater worry of graduation was brought up.

Their final word of the year: "HELP!"

Class of '85

Many responsibilities go along with becoming a sophomore. They began to seriously prepare for the 1983-84 prom. Fund raisers included a doughnut sale and a Valentine's Day carnation sale.

The sophomore class sponsor, Mrs. Padgett, speaking on behalf of the success of the sophomores related, "As sponsor of the sophomore class, I've enjoyed displaying the trophies in my room won by the sophomores thus far."

The sophomores made upper-classmen sit up and take notice by being first runner up in the Challenge of the Classes and winning the first place trophy in the Christmas Hall Decorating Contest. The class of '85' is definitely ambitious and looking forward to a successful senior year.

Sophomores Play Cupid for Valentines Day

The sophomore class sponsored the carnation sale on Valentines Day. Carnations were delivered sixth period by the sophomore class officers.

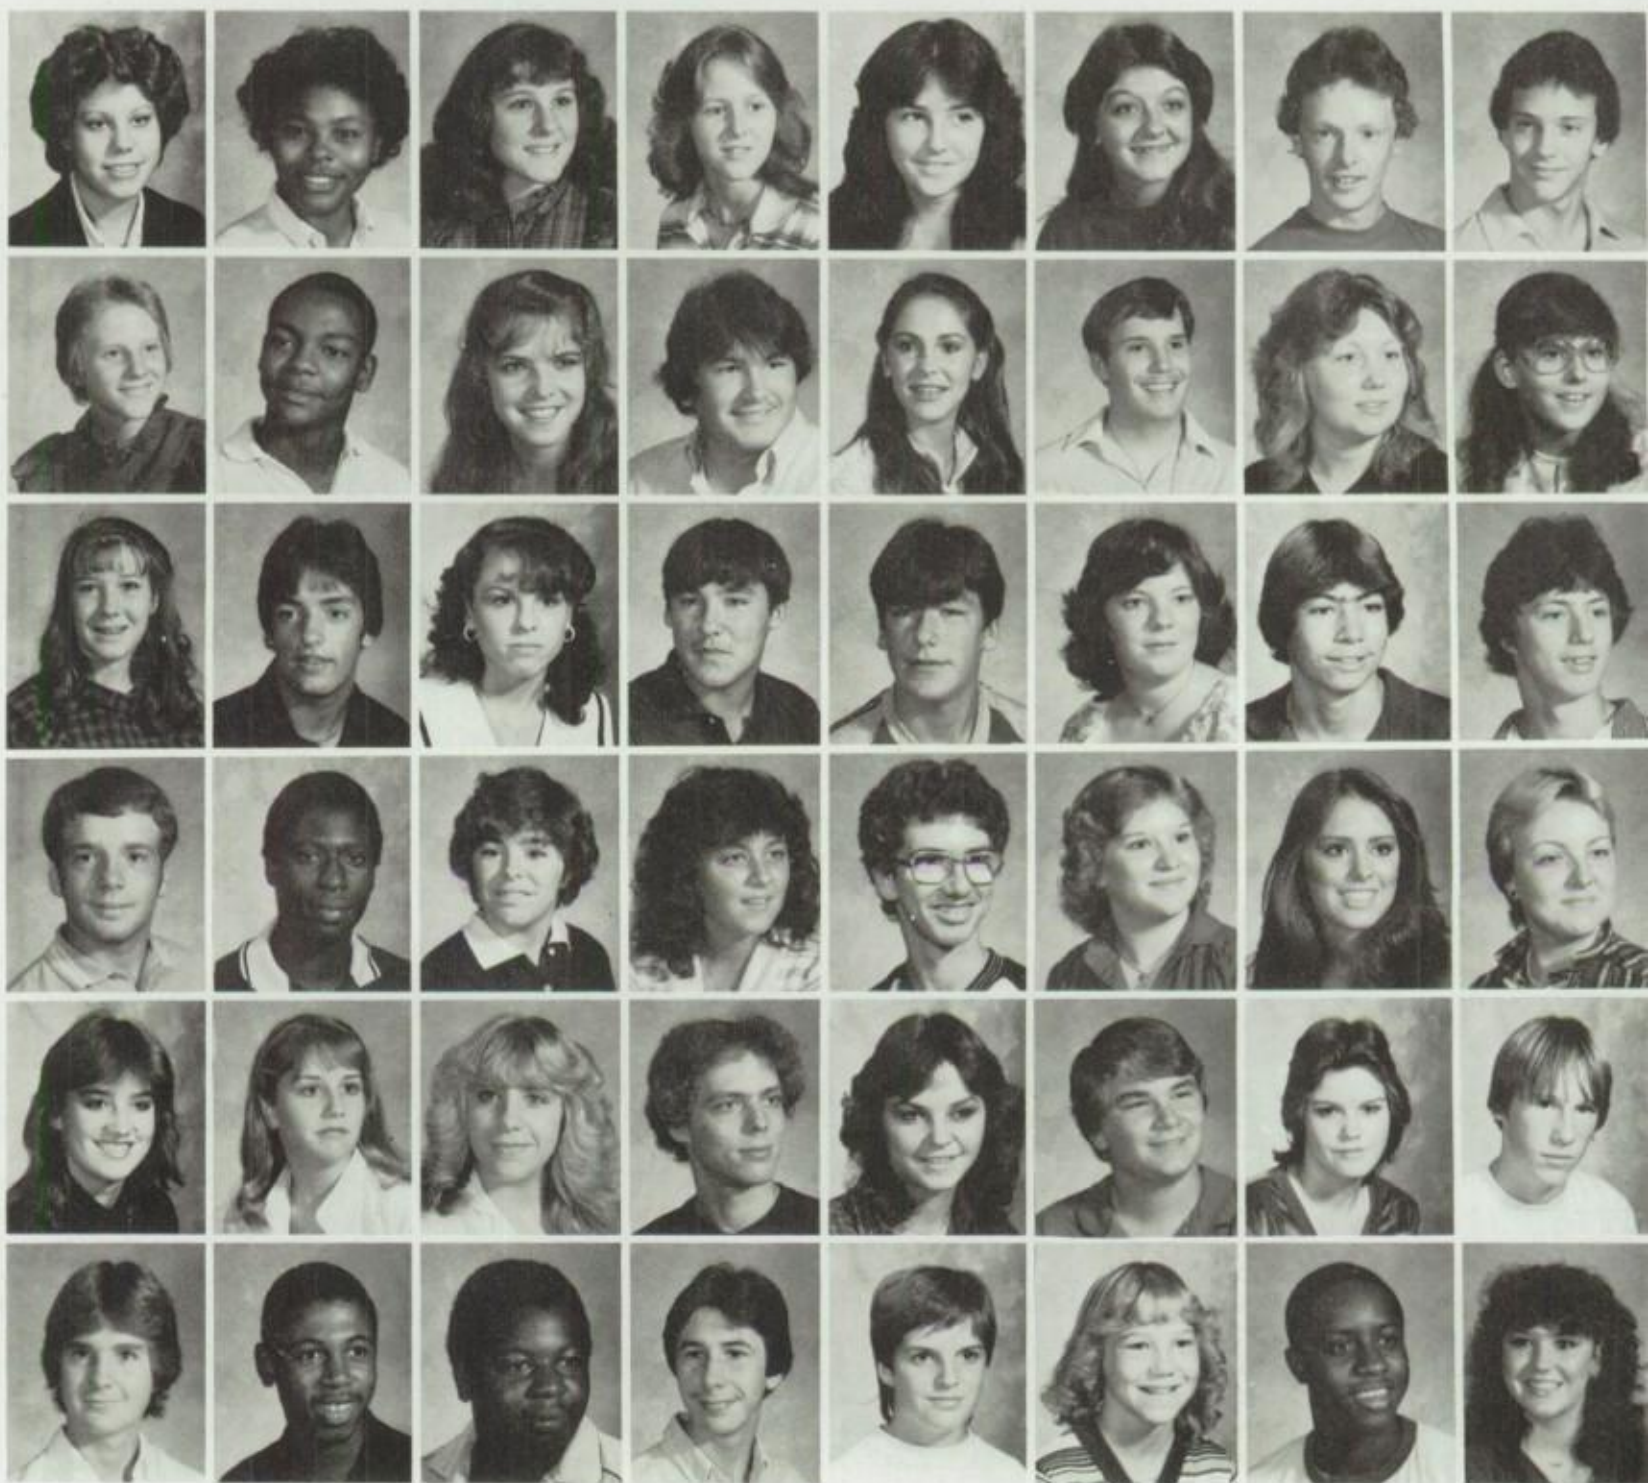

Red was for love, white stood for a secret pal, and pink was for a special friendship. It was fun as well as profitable.

Flowers are always an excellent gift of affection and they let many people express their feelings in a very special way.

Sophomore President, Kim Whatley, worked very hard to make the carnation sale a success.

Class of 86'

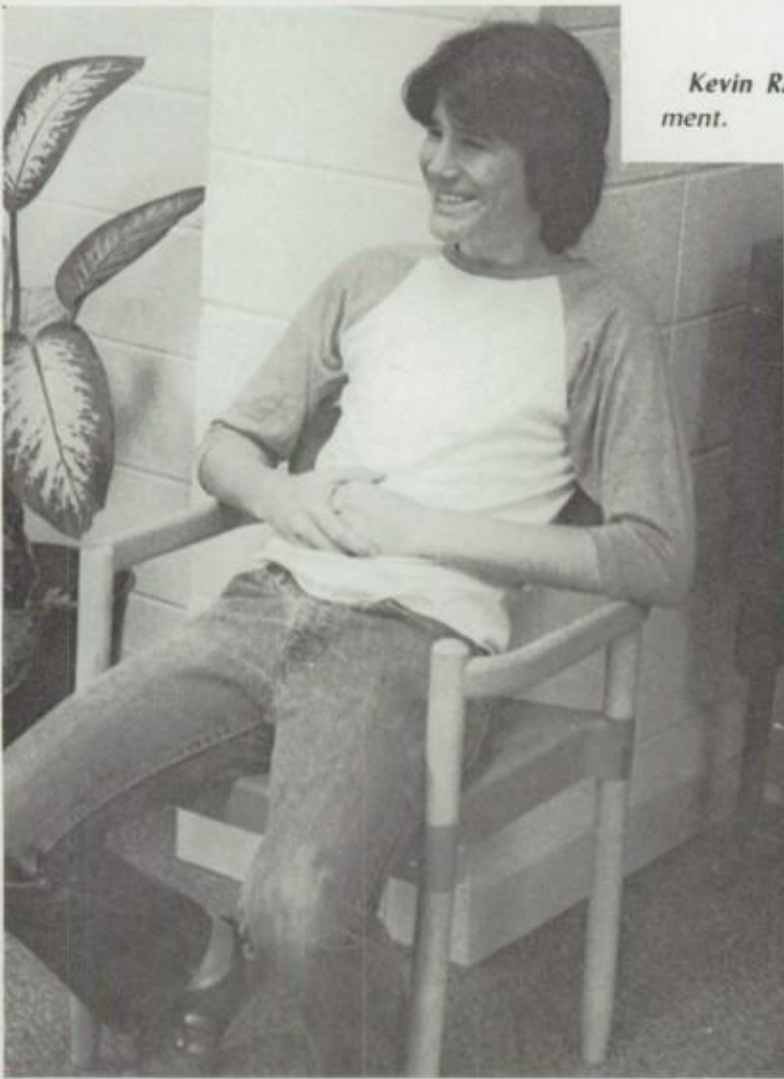

Many changes took place in the lives of the Freshmen at Baker. One such change was in academics. With classes like Algebra I, Biology, Physical Science, and other regular curriculum, the Freshmen kept busy while earning credits toward their graduation in 1986.

Extra-cirricular activities that the Freshmen can participate in have also changed from the previous years. Students can now be a part of the high school Student Council, Homecoming Courts, Hornet Night, and other high school functions.

With three years of planning, hard work, and determination ahead, the class of 86' will finally reach their long awaited goal of graduation.

Freshmen Friendship

Everyone has a friend. If you're lucky you have more than one. Each friend should be treated special. In a time of need, it is only natural to turn to the one friend who is closest to you. This person is there for you when ever you need them to be and you do the same.

As time goes on, this friendship begins to grow and become stronger. The longer it lasts, the more valuable it becomes. Freshmen begin friendships early in high school. As the years progress, they last throughout graduation and continue through college. New ones are made along the way.

Class of "87"

Eighth graders welcomed their second year in the new school. They gradually learned the classes, the teachers, and the faculty. Their next task is to become an accepted member of Baker.

Eighth graders accomplished this task through playing their part in middle school activities. Among these were the middle school dance, the Baker's Best Dance, and the Hornet sweatshirt sale.

Apart from their school activities, eighth graders enjoyed an occasional trip to the mall or a Friday night at the skating rink. Wherever they went they showed Baker spirit and pride.

They have learned the traditions and the rules, now they're ready for their freshman year.

Tracy Montgomery, Shay Gollot, and Susan Hamm do it barefooted.

Paige Hill says to Missy Durham, "One more class and then we'll close up for the weekend."

Pac-Man Fever

Have You Caught It?

Have you caught it? If you can't walk into a mall without stopping at the arcade to play pac-man, then you might have pac-man fever.

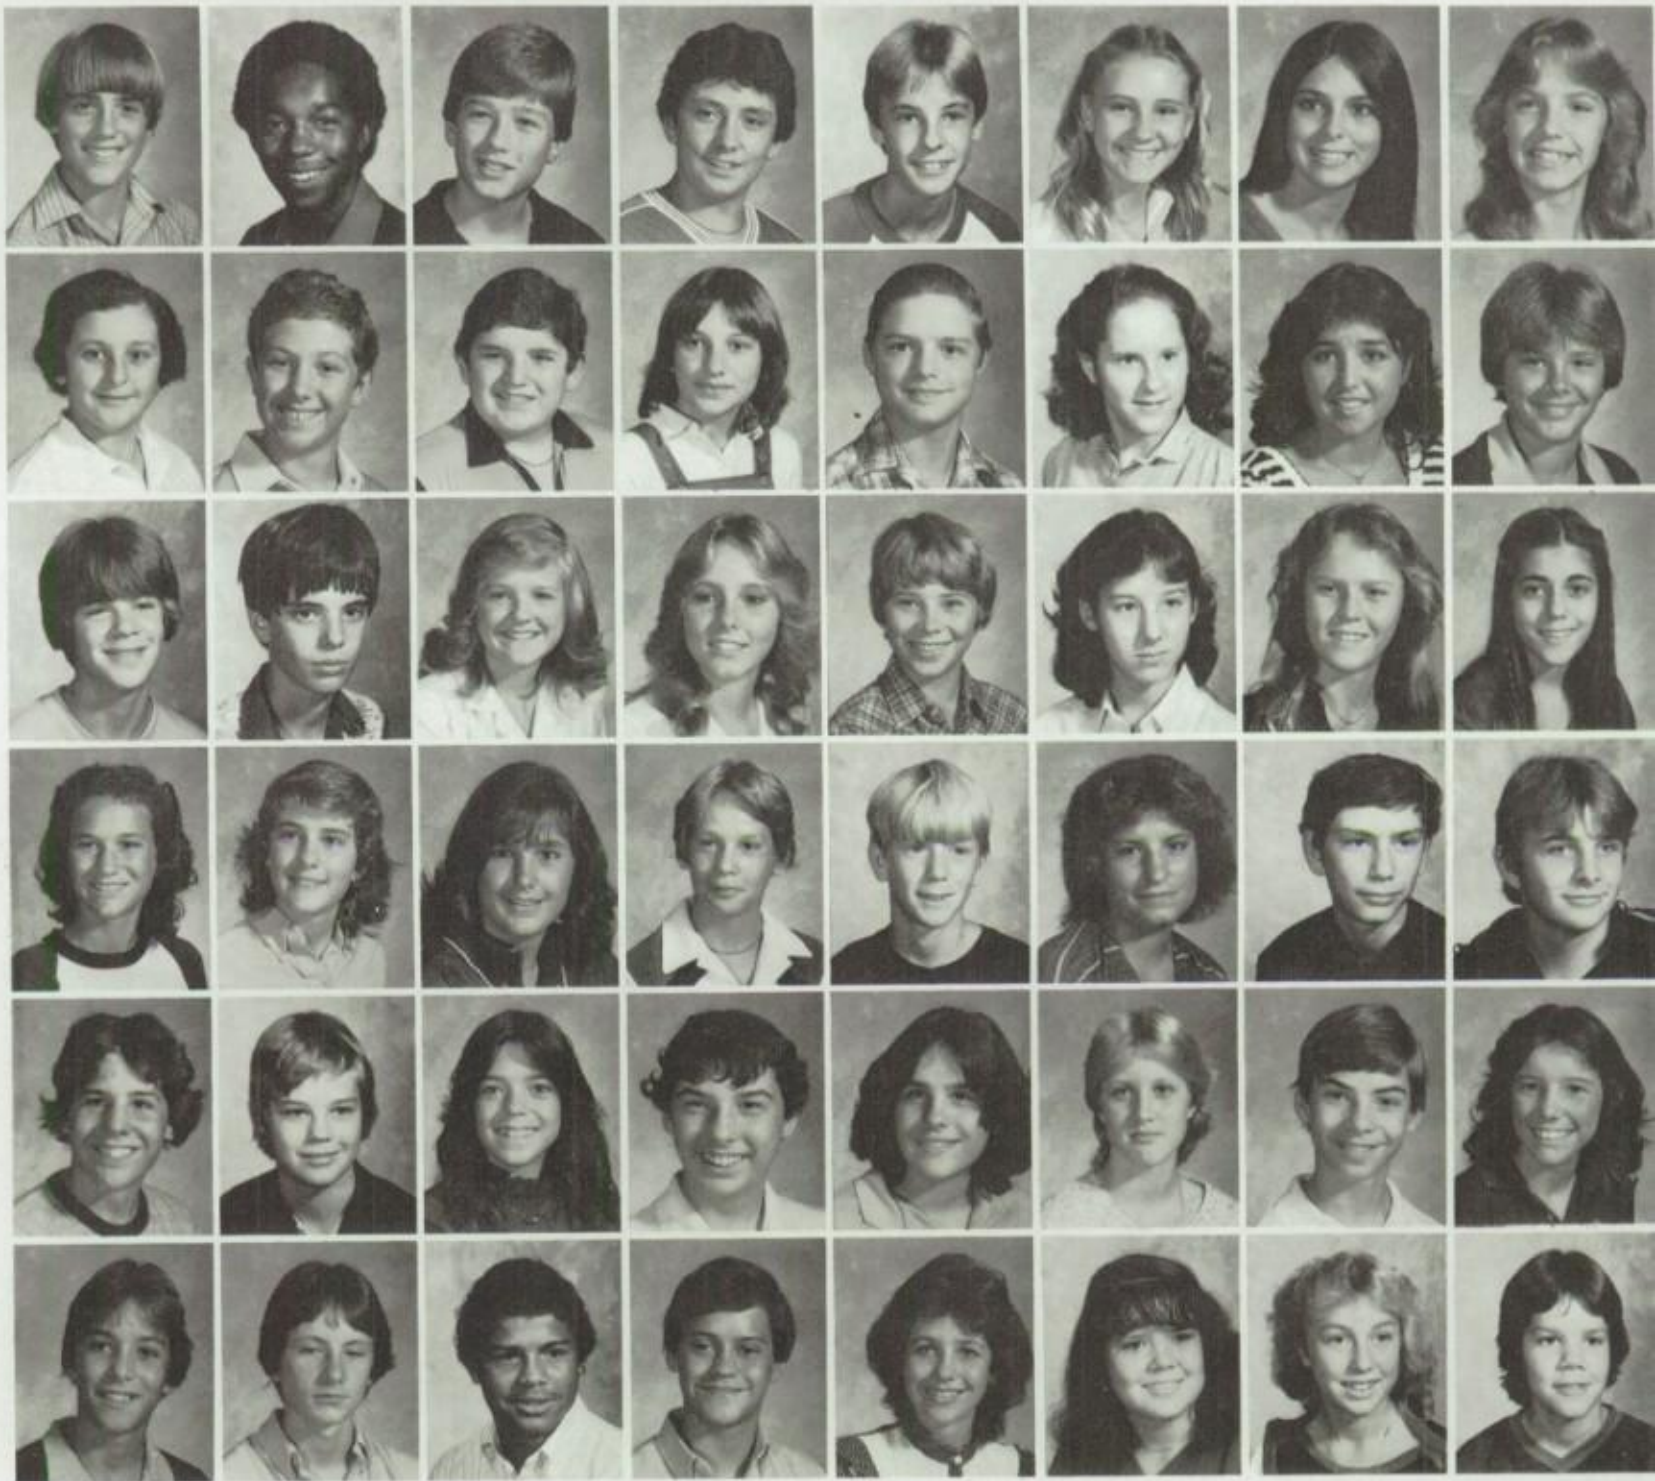

Do you put a quarter into a pac-man machine thinking you'll just play one game, and end up spending $5.00? Are you constantly told to shut up because you won't stop humming the pac-man tune in class? When you're eating your lunch does your food look like pac-monsters and energy dots? Do you find yourself running from ugly people in the halls? If so, when they touch you, do you fall down and refuse to get up until somebody gives you a quarter?

If you answered no to all these questions, you're safe, but try to avoid pac man machines. If you answered yes to just one, be careful and don't play pac-man for a week or two. If you answered yes to two questions, keep in mind that this could be habit forming. You need to stay away from pac-man for a month. If you answered yes to three or these questions, you're getting into the danger zone. Don't play pac-man for at least six months! If you answered yes to four of the five questions, my heart bleeds for you, but don't give up hope. Stop playing pac-man for a year and consult your psychiatrist.

If you answered yes to all five questions, ... yes, I am sorry to tell you, all hope is gone!!! You've got pac-man fever!

Class of 88'

Starting at a new school is tough enough but having the added burden of being the youngest can be overpowering.

Not being able to participate in some school activities, getting lost in the 2nd floor maze of halls, and the ribbing about being the youngest are some of the burdens of the Class of "88" had to put up with.

But for every disadvantage, there was an advantage such as being a member of the Middle School Student Council Association, a middle school dance, and being able to try out for cheerleading.

Seventh graders also enjoy their time outside school by going skating on Friday night with their friends and enjoying football games and dances with upperclassmen.

Some people think being short is bad, but I'll tell you how it is from a short person's point of view. Being short isn't that bad. Look at it this way, everybody knows you. If they haven't run over you in the halls or tripped over you on their way to the pencil sharpener then they have knocked you down on their way to lunch. On the other hand, some people over look you and all the jokes are "over your head!" So what, if the only dates you get are in the second grade, at least they are not too tall for you. One good thing about being short is that you "look up" to everyone. So don't look down on short people, pick em up and look em face to face!

IN MEMORY OF . . .

*Too soon, some say is the day you left.
The smiles you brought escaped unnumbered.
Yet we gained comfort in the knowledge that God knows best.*

*Though we miss your laughter, and though graduation
will hold two empty seats,
you are with us.
In spirit you will remain a part of us always.*

Jeffery Paul Colquett

We the many friends you gathered in your all too brief stay, hold memories of you in the palm of our hand, tightly,
to cherish.

Good-bye now,
and rest in peace,
the same peace you carried with you and shared with so many in your wonderful days of life.

Building Our School's

Ladder of accomplishments could be another name for our school. Baker's students have had alot to contribute to the Mobile community.

When the press wanted to know a student's feelings on the elongated school year who was chosen? Baker students.

Not much of a year for athletic triumphs, but Baker came out fairly well in it's first year as a 4-A team. Striving and always pushing for excellence our teams worked together to create school spirit and pride.

Speaking of school pride . . . When the Red Cross and the S.C.A. held it's annual blooddrive Baker had an over whelming and record breaking amount donated.

The work elective is more of a basic to some creative students. Our band, R.O.T.C., Art and Drama departments always presented the very best we had to offer, earning superior ratings wherever they competed.

As we all built our tremendous ladder we experienced new feelings of self pride and union, together.

A year of changes, experiences and contributions ended with as much enthusiasm as it began with. The 1982-83 school year taught students more than just the sense of books, but the sense of life. An accident which devastated the entire school, was a fatal car explosion, ending the lives of two outstanding seniors; Jeff Colquett and Brian Edmunson. Through it all our school held together. For the school is NOT the building, the school is the people, whether faculty, administration, students, or support staff. These people of Baker High School made this year a memorable one. This book is Our School In Memory.

Have you ever heard the saying, "In the end it will all work out for the best?" Well, the 1983 Novus staff hopes so, because we feel we have captured the year 1983 in this Novus edition.

We would like to thank the following people for their help in bringing forth this book of not soon forgotten memories;
